Two-Thirds of County Jobs Found Held by Republicans

Survey Discloses 109 Employees Not Even Registered

By KENNETH ADAMS

Two out of every three county employees are Republicans. Despite the fact that there isn't an elective office in the county that isn't "non-partisan." Which probably is startling news to Democrats of Orange county, who now form the majority party in this county, as shown by registration figures and the vote at the presidential election. From facts gathered in a survey made by a local group of non-partisan voters and taxpayers through a member of the official family of the courthouse, The Journal learned today that an average of about 66 per cent of county employees, or two out of three, are affiliated with the Republican party.

120,000 JOIN CAR STRIKE

LaSalle, Cadillac Shut
Down; No Settlement
Seen in Sea Strike

(By the Associated Press)
New strikes and shutdowns in the automobile industry threatened to add more than 20,000 workmen today to the 100,000 already made idle by the nation's industrial controversies.

A "sit-down" strike developed at the Cadillac Motor Car company in Detroit, forcing the lay off of 4800.

Production in the La Salle division was suspended. The scheduled halting of operations in Chevrolet units at Flint, Saginaw and Bay City, Mich., promised to add 19,875 more to the unemployed.

Approximately 40,000 seamen were ashore in strikes against ship owners on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, with no settlement in sight. At New York, more than 300 maritime workers voted to lift the strike on tankers, accepting a wage of $80 a month.

General Motors officials said 70,000 of its employees would be idle by nightfall.

New strikes closed the Briggs Body company plant at Detroit and made 650 idle at the Walker Ajax company in Racine, Wis. The Murray Body company at Detroit said its operations were not affected by a short "sit-down" demonstration.

The petition was filed with Governor Merriam by the "Inglewood Foward committee" and was signed by Dr. John R. Lechner and seven associates. It accused Burke and Roth of bad faith in supposedly encouraging preliminary construction work at the Inglewood track site.

H. B. May Eat Cake, Keep It

By FRANK DOWSETT

Talk about eating your cake and keeping it! You may soon be able to build a home in Huntington Beach and pay for it if oil is found under your property—with your royalties, without disturbing a single flower in your garden; in fact, without the derelict being even in sight of your house.

Wealth by remote control is coming to Huntington Beach if a proposed zoning plan is accepted by the city council.

It's no dream, either. It's a whipstock drilling. Like the rainbow after the storm, whipstock or directional slant drilling, storm center of many a bitter legal battle, today was seen as a radiant beam arching underground to the legendary pot of gold; in this case a very practical pot of black gold for many of this oil city's present and future home owners.

Such was the picture brought into being by this suggested solution of the most perplexing problem long faced by family heads planning to build homes in Huntington Beach—that of finding a means to protect residence districts from the encroachment of the striding oil field rigs. Whipstock drilling was the solution proposed by former Mayor Bowers and heartily endorsed by Editor Jim Farquhar of the Huntington Beach News.

Residence districts would be strictly zoned, it was understood, if the Bowers plan were found workable, and all drilling for oil in that area would be done by slant drilling with rig and gear at a distant spot beyond the residence boundaries. Property owners would receive their proper royalties and without the least disturbance or loss of value of their surface holdings.

The oil bill, which puts the $200,000 oil state oil pool on the auction block by providing for competitive bidding, provides actual drilling can be conducted either from the bed of the ocean or from the surface of adjacent uplands by means of wells slanted into the oil fields.

Thorough revision of county welfare policies and personnel was imminent today as Jack W. Snow, new director, dismissed Mrs. Ada Ehlen, case supervisor, and appointed Miss Kathryn Adams in her place.

Thus continued a series of changes in county offices, started Tuesday when a "new deal" board of supervisors, led by Steele Finley and Harry D. Riley, changed three department heads.

Snow said Mrs. Ehlen will remain active duty until Jan. 18 and will be granted two weeks' vacation at that time.

Miss Adams, who is to assume her duties at once, is a former associate of Snow's at the local SRA office, where she has been a case worker and case supervisor for three years.

The new case supervisor is a native and resident of Anaheim, and daughter of Henry Adams, prominent lumber dealer of that city. She is a graduate of Oregon State college.

CANCEL TALKS BY BROWNE

Mystery Hovers About
Veto of Lecturer's
Appearance Here

Lewis E. Browne, whose talks provoked a storm of protests here last year, will not lecture on the Santa Ana adult education program this year.

The Journal was informed today that Superintendent Frank A. Henderson of the Santa Ana school system issued orders cancelling three talks the author and lecturer was to have made here on Jan. 25 and Feb. 1 and 8.

Considerable mystery and secrecy was injected into the cancellation of Browne's scheduled lectures here. Chairman George E. Wells of the board of education said that the board took no "official action" on the matter.

Last year when Browne lectured to big audiences here, charges were hurled that his talks were communistic in nature and that Browne had distinct leanings toward Communism. His lectures, however, attracted such large crowds it was necessary to move the meeting places three times to accommodate them.

As was the case last year, the lectures were to be given under auspices of the adult education department. This was until the order went out to cancel the talks. It was said that written instructions were sent to the adult education department by Henderson to cancel the lectures. Henderson now is ill in Long Beach and could not be reached for a statement.

The oil bill, which puts the $200,000 oil state oil pool on the auction block by providing for competitive bidding, provides actual drilling can be conducted either from the bed of the ocean or from the surface of adjacent uplands by means of wells slanted into the oil fields.

BALANCED BUDGET UP TO PRIVATE INDUSTRY—FDR

RIOT FLARES OVER FRANK DISMISSAL

Student Strike Protests
Ouster of Wisconsin
University Head

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Governor Philip F. La Follette, addressing 1000 striking students who invaded his office today, refused to promise consideration of their demands for reinstatement of Dr. Glenn Frank to the University of Wisconsin presidency.

The university board of regents ousted Frank amid cries of "politics" from his defenders. The vote, taken last night, was 8 to 7. The governor told the student demonstrators he had invited President John Conant of Harvard University to come to Madison to determine whether politics had motivated Frank's dismissal.

Police Called
Conant declined, La Follette added.

The students, angry over Frank's dismissal, gathered on the campus and marched to the capitol. They swarmed into La Follette's office, breaking up a press conference at which the governor had intended to discuss the "politics" charge.

Police reserves from downtown headquarters were called to help capitol officers eject the demonstrators. La Follette then agreed to address them.

Riot Staged
He was greeted with a mixed chorus of cheers and boos when he stepped upon the rostrum in the state assembly hall. The students listened quietly. There were more cheers and boos after he finished.

Immediately after the vote was announced yesterday a group of students staged a demonstration in the small hearing room. They hoisted, overturned chairs and tables and broke a window before police arrived.

Throughout the night the students went from fraternity house to dormitories to sororities, urging others to attend a demonstration before classes today and then refuse to enter their rooms.

Westover Bill Is Aimed at Tax List Publication

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Senator Harry C. Westover of Santa Ana today introduced a bill providing county delinquent tax lists may be posted in three places in the county instead of being advertised in newspapers.

The bill makes it mandatory that delinquent tax lists be published, and this practice is followed in all but Alpine county, which has no newspaper.

He said during the past year the counties paid $262,000 to newspapers for the publishing of the tax lists. One Los Angeles publication was paid $125,000 last year for publishing the delinquent tax lists.

Fenelon, New Purchasing

By REDMOND BARNETT

It isn't every county that can employ a man who was along on the famous "Voyage of the Snark." But Orange county has one, and he's Eugene Fenelon, newly-appointed purchasing agent.

Fenelon went along with Jack London on the voyage, made famous when London wrote a book about it.

Speaking of the trip, as of other incidents of his interesting career, Fenelon declines to elaborate, but

Board Plans Quick Death For Huddles

(Editor's Note: This is the fourth article in a series, dealing with the attitude of the new board of supervisors on questions of major importance affecting the voters of Orange county. Other articles, dealing with some of these questions in more detail, will follow.)

By ROCH BRADSHAW
Orange county's board of supervisors will "call its signals" right out in the open a lot more frequently this year than it has in the past. There won't be so many huddles.

The reason—it's difficult to stage a two-man huddle. Supervisors Harry D. Riley, Steele Finley and N. E. West have declared themselves against huddles—except in extreme cases. Chairman Willard Smith and Supervisor John Mitchell have not made any pronouncement on the subject.

But it's safe to say Smith and Mitchell—a minority—won't do much huddling by themselves while the other three members of the board sit out in the open and transact county business. This they could do, since three make a majority.

And Smith and Mitchell will want to be on hand to cast their votes when important matters come up. Riley, in subscribing to the nine-

CHILD LABOR LAW URGED

WASHINGTON. (AP)—President Roosevelt, unheeding the dispute over curbing the supreme court, made a second brisk move to achieve NRA goals today by seeking to speed ratification of the child labor amendment.

In letters to the governors and governor's elect of 19 states where legislators meet this winter, he asked favorable action on the proposal pending since 1924. Only 12 more states need to act to make it the twenty-first amendment, inasmuch as 24 states have ratified.

"It is clearly indicated that child labor, especially in low paid unskilled types of work, is increasing," Mr. Roosevelt wrote.

"I am convinced that nationwide minimum standards are necessary and that a way should be found promptly to crystallize in legal safeguards public opinion in behalf of the elimination of child labor."

Congressional leaders considered the action another indication of presidential militance on labor legislation.

Called together at noon especially to receive the budget for 1937-38, members of both senate and house talked dollars and cents less than wages and hours.

Word reached the legislators that administration advisors were drafting a comprehensive business regulation statute in the spirit of NRA.

PUBLIC DEBT WILL REACH NEW HIGH

Total Expenditures of $7,695,123,000 Are Expected in Year

WASHINGTON. (AP)—President Roosevelt sent a multi-billion-dollar budget to congress today in a message bluntly leaving a complete balance of federal income and outgo up to industrial re-employment efforts.

With certain exceptions, Mr. Roosevelt told congress his new 1938 budget "is in balance" and would remain so if later relief requirements do not exceed an estimated $1,537,123,000.

Then, after forecasting a new public debt peak next June 30 of $35,026,000,000 despite sharply increased income, the President added:

Need Cooperation
"It is my conviction that if every employer or potential employer will undertake during the next six months to give employment to persons now receiving government help, the national budget can thereafter be kept definitely in balance."

"Without such cooperation on the part of the employers, the question of a balanced budget for 1938 must of necessity remain an open one for the very good reason that this government does not propose next year, any more than during the past four years, to allow American families to starve."

Mr. Roosevelt's budget message, covering especially the 12 months beginning next July 1, but including also requests for money to carry relief through June 30, was read to both senate and house by clerks. No new taxes were asked.

Besides emphasizing the responsibility of business to absorb the jobs, the President warned the overwhelmingly Democratic congress:

"If new legislation imposes any substantial increase in expenditures either in the expansion of existing or the creation of new activities, it becomes a matter of sound policy simultaneously to provide new revenue sufficient to meet the additional cost."

In terms of the 1938 budget "in balance," the President allowed $3,537,123,000 for the year's relief costs and excepted a $401,515,000 appropriation law required for debt reduction.

But he stressed that "if improvement in economic conditions continues at the present rate," the

CRASH KILLS ORANGE GIRL

Betty Bryant, 18-year-old Santa Ana Junior college student from Orange, was killed early today when her father's car crashed into a heavy truck and trailer on Norwalk boulevard in Los Angeles county.

Four other Orange residents riding in the car were injured, two of them seriously, according to Associated Press dispatches. A Sheriff's deputies reported that the truck and trailer stopped on the west side of the boulevard to permit the driver, Philip Burke, 30, to make repairs. Burke sent his helper down the road to signal southbound cars, but the sedan crashed into the trailer before flames could be lighted.

The car was driven by Miss Bryant's father, James R. Bryant, manager of the Anaconda Wire and Cable company in Orange. The other occupants, the girl's mother, Mrs. Alice Bryant, and two passengers, Mrs. Maude Smith and Mrs. W. J. Johnson, together with Bryant, were taken to the Artesia hospital. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Johnson were seriously injured, and Mr. and Mrs. Bryant were treated for minor injuries.

"Too Late Now"

Richard Dineley (above) Santa Francisco munitions broker, apparently was the loser today in his race to send $4,500,000 worth of war supplies to the Spanish Socialist government. The President today signed the arms embargo resolution, forbidding shipment of war supplies from America to any warring foreign nation.

ARM CARGOES NOW BANNED

President Signs Embargo
As Mexico Opens Its Ports to Shipment

WASHINGTON. (AP)—A special resolution embargoing munitions shipments to Spain became law today with President Roosevelt's signature.

The measure was hurried to the White House and signed within a few minutes after Vice President Garner affixed his signature at the opening of the senate's session.

The resolution provides a $10,000 fine or five years' imprisonment or both for anyone who should:

"Export arms, ammunition or implements of war from any place in the United States, or possessions of the United States, to Spain, or to any other foreign country for transshipment to Spain, for use of either of the opposing forces in Spain."

MEXICO OPENS
PORTS TO ARMS

MEXICO CITY. (AP)—Mexico opened her ports today for re-shipment of United States arms to Spain.

Ernest Hidalgo, acting secretary of state, said recent events caused the Mexican government to modify its policy prohibiting such re-shipments.

"We cannot, of course, impede shipments of arms for which the United States has given its approval," he said. "We can only hold shipments when the government of the country of their origin disapproves."

"Too Late Now"
A licensed shipment of $4,500,000 of war supplies would be permitted through Mexico en route to Spain, Hidalgo said, "if the license is not cancelled before the arms enter Mexico."

(The license for export of the armaments from the United States was granted to Richard Dineley, Santa Francisco munitions broker.)

"It's too late now," said Dineley, who had sold a large order of planes and equipment. He complained that Felix Gordon-Ordaz, Spanish ambassador to Mexico, had given him "the run around."

An earlier shipment of eight planes, and a few engine parts licensed to Robert Cuse of New Jersey got away from New York Wednesday while congress was speeding action on the embargo.

REPRISAL FOR DEAD BARON DEMANDED

France Protests Landing of German Marines in Spanish Morocco

BRUSSELS. (AP)—Belgium served a sharp ultimatum on the Spanish Socialist government today, giving it 48 hours to deliver with military honors the body of Baron Jacques De Borchgrave, allegedly slain embassy secretary in Madrid, and submit apologies and pay a $35,000 indemnity.

If Spain fails to comply with the demands, it was indicated Belgium will sever diplomatic relations and possibly submit the case to the Hague international court.

The death of the young diplomat, who was first secretary of the embassy, has aroused great indignation here where he was extremely popular.

Belgians Revolted
A senate committee investigating the incident was told Borchgrave, 35, was buried underneath nine of 21 others slain 500 yards north of Madrid.

The baron was said at the time to be 10 miles from the front lines visiting wounded Belgians of the international brigade.

The committee was told Belgian volunteers had revolted because they had not been paid and were shot.

Borchgrave was killed with the others, it was said, although he was only a visitor.

Former Minister H. P. Spaak urged members of the committee not divulge parts of his statement as it was likely to prove fatal to "persons still residing in Madrid."

Body Exhumed
On Jan. 4, the newspaper Libre Belgique said the baron's body had been found at Fuencarral with his identity papers missing.

The young diplomat, missing since Dec. 21, was the only son of the Belgian ambassador to the Vatican.

His body, the paper asserted, was located by Belgian Consul Chotol, who found mention of an unidentified blond man, wearing Belgian clothes, in a list of daily funerals.

He had the body exhumed and identified.

(At the time the newspaper reported the discovery.)

KIDNAP TRAIL NEARS END

TACOMA. (AP)—Four automobiles filled with federal bureau of investigation agents slipped out of a Tacoma garage early today, the roar of their exhausts shattering a long period of dead calm in the Charles Mattson kidnapping.

Their hurried and unexplained trip, coupled with the fact members of the Mattson family were wide awake at that hour, immediately stirred speculation Charles might be released from his 12-day kidnapping captivity within a few hours.

Tacoma police remained at their headquarters, professing to know nothing of the federal agents' movements.

The sudden activity at 4:30 a. m., came at the end of a night filled with vague rumors.

FARM BUREAU CORPORATION UNDER WAY

Directors Rename Old Officers; Announce Stand on Water

The old association of the Orange county farm bureau was out of existence today following transfer of all assets, liabilities and records to the farm bureau as a corporation at a meeting of directors yesterday afternoon.

Directors of the bureau re-elected the same officers for the corporation as were serving at the time of the incorporation. These are: D. R. Gardner, Villa Park, president; L. P. Halderman, Anaheim, vice president; H. J. Hinrichs, Orange, second vice president; S. W. Stanley, Tustin, treasurer; R. J. McFadden, Placentia, state delegate; R. D. Flaherty, Santa Ana, executive secretary, and C. J. Marks, Tustin, field secretary.

The ways and means committee was authorized to cooperate with the Agricultural Extension service in holding an economic conference in February, the purpose being to analyze land use and economic problems in relation to the national land use problem.

Take Water Stand
A resolution adopted said: "Resolved, that we hereby affirm our position that the solution of the water problems now confronting Orange county are the most important questions before agriculture and all committees and departments of this corporation are hereby requested to cooperate with the water committee of this corporation to the end that all possible progress be achieved during 1937 in the balancing of the water use supply and that steps to secure and maintain equitable regulation of such use and supply be accomplished."

A committee was named to make recommendations on plans and costs for preparing the farm bureau building at 353 South Main street, Orange, for farm bureau use and the addition of an assembly room. S. W. Stanley was named chairman. He will be aided by H. H. Gardner, Mrs. A. F. Schroeder, A. D. Smiley and John Osterman.

Seek Consolidations
Directors reaffirmed the organization's position in favor of consolidation of functions of government, and requested the tax committee to study this question as a possible means of saving all or part of the costs which the necessity to balance the county's water supply make imminent.

President Gardner announced after the meeting that actions taken by the directors bring to a position of action the policies started at the annual meeting last November. Efforts of the bureau will center on the various phases of the water question, including underground water regulation, flood control and conservation of storm waters, metropolitan water, sewage reclamation and proper allocation of the waters of the Santa Ana river.

To Study Legislation
Legislation coming before the state legislature and congress will be carefully studied. Regarding coordination of functions of government, the bureau will continue study of special districts, constables and justice courts and overlapping functions within existing departments and offices in various districts as well as the county government to reduce governmental costs.

The bureau also will continue to study the labor needs of agriculture and conditions of employment so that actions on labor problems may be constructive, fair and reasonable both to producer and the worker.

Sit-Down Strikers Stop General Motors

More than 120,000 car workers were estimated to day to be out on a strike directed against General Motors. Above is a scene from a Detroit plant, where "sit-down" strikers defied efforts to eject them, and prevented non-strikers from going to work.

MORE ABOUT COUNTY JOBS

publican, the county registration was slightly Republican. Results of the survey showed that the "big boys," those in the high-salaried bracket who earn $500 or more a month, are dominantly Republican. The ratio in this bracket is 71 per cent Republican, or about four to one. From this bracket where training, competency and intelligence gives higher salaries to county workers, the ratio in favor of Republicans drops, but not so much.

Other Brackets
In the next lower bracket, where county employees receive from $200 to $300 a month, there is a percentage of 68 for the Republicans, or a little better than two to one. The ratio in the salary bracket of from $100 to $200 monthly is 66 per cent in favor of the Republicans, or practically two to one. Below the $100 a month bracket, the preponderance of Republicans to Democrats is 60 per cent.

Those who were interested in the survey, believed to be the only one of its kind ever made in the county, raised the question as to whether or not the party affiliations of supervisors were reflected in the party ratio among county employees. Attention was called to the fact that the board of supervisors has been from 50 to 100 per cent Republican for many years past.

LOS ANGELES. (AP) — Senora Francisco Lopez De Bilderrain, daughter of the discoverer of gold near Newhall in 1841, will be buried tomorrow.

ONLY FEW CASES OF FLU HERE

The influenza epidemic raging in the Middle West may hit Orange county any time, Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, warned today.

He said that despite the prevalence of colds here, few cases of actual influenza have been reported to his department.

"Indications appear to be that we may expect the influenza wave to reach this section of the country," he stated today in a disease report issued to physicians. He issued influenza cards to aid in reporting cases.

Only four cases of influenza were reported for the entire county for the two weeks' period ending Dec. 31, although the five-year average for the same period was 34.8 cases.

Two Runaways, 13, Are Nabbed Here

Two 13-year-old Long Beach boys were back with their parents today after hitch-hiking here, being arrested by sheriff's officers, and spending the night in the juvenile home.

The boys, whose names are being withheld by The Journal because of their youth, got a ride from the outskirts of Long Beach to Garden Grove with Lee R. Strickland, 1045 West Second street, who reported to police that his two passengers ran when he let them out in Garden Grove.

Meanwhile sheriff's officers picked the boys up at Ocean avenue and Berridale road and took them to the juvenile home before calling Long Beach police.

Passenger Hurt In Auto Crash

One passenger was bruised slightly and four cars were damaged in two accidents reported to Santa Ana police today.

Mrs. Fred Wilson, 923 North Olive street, was given first-aid treatment for bruises on her right arm after a car driven by her husband struck a truck driven by Albert Z. Shelley, 1107 West Walnut street, in the 2100 block on North Flower street.

Cars driven by O. W. Shahan, route 1, Garden Grove, and Harvey W. Miranda, 1802 West Second street, collided at Third and Baker streets yesterday afternoon. Neither driver was injured.

FRANCE PROTESTS GERMAN INTRUSION

PARIS. (AP) — French consular officials in Spanish Morocco were ordered today to protest to Insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco's agents against the reported landing of German marines near Ceuta.

Authoritative sources disclosed the government had instructed her representatives to point out to the Fascist officials that foreign troops were barred from the Spanish territory of international treaties.

Further, French circles declared, the representations would contend that construction of fortified positions at the Moroccan seaport also was prohibited.

Asks Consultation

French officials asserted it was "impossible" for France to permit a reported German incursion into Spanish Morocco, and said she would demand an immediate consultation of Europe's powers to halt the flow of foreign men and munitions into Spain.

Taking immediate cognizance of a report by the French Moroccan administrator to the effect Germany was conducting a large-scale military and commercial invasion in the adjacent Spanish zone, the French officials said:

"France finds it impossible to permit Germany to gain a foothold there."

At the same time, authorities at the Quai D'Orsay insisted German and Italian acceptance "in principle" of a proposed ban on foreign volunteer enlistments for Spain had opened the way for a quick consultation of powers represented on the international neutrality committee.

They said France would press for such a consultation.

MANAGER OF RED CROSS COMING

A. L. Schafer, manager of the Pacific branch of the national Red Cross, San Francisco, will address two Orange county chapters and participate in the opening of a new first aid station at Irvine park on Jan. 26 and 27. It was announced today by the county Red Cross organization.

Orange chapter, sponsor of the new station, will have as its speaker at the annual chapter meeting Jan. 26 at 7:30 p. m., in the fire hall of Orange, plans for which were made yesterday at a session of the executive committee presided over by Judge A. W. Swayze, Orange vice chairman.

That same afternoon, Schafer will assist in the station opening, to which city and county officers have been invited, according to Dr. Thomas B. Rhone, the chapter's first aid chairman, who is in charge of all arrangements. Employees of Irvine park have completed their standard first aid course, it is announced.

Dr. Rhone also reported Thursday the completion of two standard first aid classes, with 18 persons qualifying for standard certificates. Delbert Lewis, who taught the classes, and Casey Borebrake were reappointed by Orange chapter as 1937 instructors.

Carl Thomas, principal of the Orange elementary schools, reported on Junior Red Cross work; and the chapter decided to take charge of two unrolled rooms at Killefer and Cypress schools. W. W. Perry was named chairman of the nominating committee to report at the annual meeting.

Anaheim chapter will have Schafer as speaker at its annual meeting at noon on Jan. 27 at the Marigold cafe, to which all organizations of Anaheim are being invited to send representatives. Mrs. Earl Smith has been named chairman of the nominating committee for this chapter.

IOWA NOT AFTER COACH JONES

IOWA CITY, Iowa. (AP) — The Associated Press learned from an authoritative source today that the University of Iowa athletic board has had no contacts with Howard Jones, Southern California football coach, concerning the Iowa coaching position.

SEEK TO UNLOAD BEAN CARGO

SAN PEDRO. (AP) — Unloading of cocoa beans from the strike-bound steamer West Ivis as a medical relief measure depended today on whether the McCormick Line puts aboard a full crew of firemen and seamen.

At the request of Secretary of Labor Perkins, who reported the bean cargo was needed by veterans' hospitals, union longshoremen started unloading 800 bags yesterday.

Although the work was authorized by the joint strike committee, it was soon halted by 100 pickets of three other sea-going unions, who protested members of the marine firemen, water tenders, oilers and wipers union should have been employed to get up steam on the ship.

LOCAL BOY IS BITTEN BY MAD DOG

Rabies Warning Given By Sutherland After Death of Animal

Death of a mad dog in Santa Ana which bit the 4-year-old son of its owner, today caused Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, to issue an urgent warning to dog owners and others of the community.

A brown and white male fox terrier about a year and a half old owned by Webster Story, 1312 Cypress, developed rabies and died yesterday. An examination last night established the fact that the dog had positive rabies.

Story and his son, Ronald, are being treated with rabies vaccine, although the father was not known to have been bitten.

When Came Home

Dr. Sutherland pointed out that the dog was away from home a few days the first of the week, and was ill when it came home. It probably was sick when it left home, he said.

It is imperative for anyone who might have been bitten by a dog of this description to get in touch with the county health department at once.

Dr. Sutherland also urged that if any dog owners have seen their dogs fighting with a dog of this description to report the incident immediately to the health department or to the poundmaster to prevent the spread of rabies.

Dog Owners Warned

Owners of dogs in the neighborhood where the fox terrier lived particularly were warned to keep their dogs under strict observation in the future. Dr. Sutherland said the trouble is that sometimes it takes as long as three months for the disease to show up. However, the average length of time is about 21 days.

A dog that has been infected with rabies refuses to eat its food, gets despondent and mopey and develops a peculiar bark. In the later stages its jaws drop down.

POLICE REPORTS

Arrested on vagrancy charges at Fourth and French streets last night, Joseph T. O'Neil, 43, and Edward Livingston, 38, were in the county jail today.

Floyd Curt, route 2, Santa Ana, misses his flying duck and his greyhound today. A radiator cap and a gasoline tank ornament with the speed symbols on them were stolen from his car at 509 West Fifth street last night, he told police. They were valued at $5.

Bicycles belonging to Glenn Layton, 1252 West Fifth street, and Don Wiedman, 706 West Third street, were reported stolen from Santa Ana High school yesterday afternoon.

The police department's collection of trophies had a gallon jug and siphon hose added to it today. Pat Woodward, 1423 West Third street, reported a man with the siphon and jug stealing gasoline from a car belonging to Noel Woodward last night, but neighbors had frightened the thief away before officers arrived.

City court traffic fines: Speeding—James E. Wood, $6; Mary Moore, $5; Mary Ann Moore, $5; Boulevard stop—Julia Belle Preston, $2; Parking—Wayne Bartholomew, $1; L. M. Cox, $1. No operator's license—Jose Lopez, $5.

MORE ABOUT FENELON

thence began the successful career of Martin Johnson, African big-game hunter and lecturer.

Johnson was an amateur photographer, and improving his skill throughout the trip and collecting curios from the South Seas was able, after the trip ended, to appear in vaudeville for several years with his act "Through the South Seas with Jack London."

Act in Europe
Fenelon, on the other hand, confines his stories of the trip to an occasional talk before Sea Scouts, and Boy Scouts interested in sailing, but he points out that Johnson, the only one of the three not college trained, was able to visualize the value and capitalize on the experiences of the trip to start his successful career.

After college Fenelon, born at Sag Harbor, N. Y., engaged in theatrical work in Europe until invited by his friend, London, to make the trip on the "Shark."

Helped Found Fenelon
Later Orange county became the scene of his activities, and in construction work for A. S. Bradford he built the first houses and bank at the founding of the city of Placentia when the Santa Fe railroad route was changed in 1910.

Ranching occupied him in the Placentia area until he joined the army in 1917 and was sent overseas. Returning, he settled in Newport Beach and aided in drawing up building ordinances. He was building superintendent there for five years.

Fenelon has been retired for the past five years, but he says getting back into harness makes him feel younger and he enters into his new position with considerable interest.

CLARIFY LIQUOR ENFORCEMENT

A communication received today from George M. Stout of the state board of equalization by H. E. MacKenzie, in charge of liquor law enforcement for the board in Orange county, settled the question as to whether local authorities are empowered to enforce the alcoholic beverage act.

Stout cites rules of the state board to show that local officers are empowered to enforce the act, just as they are empowered to enforce other laws on misdemeanors or felonies. Local police, peace officers and enforcement officials have full power and authority to prosecute violators of the act, Stout said.

It is the duty of any sheriff, constable or police officer to proceed under the liquor act against violators as he would against violators of any other criminal law. District attorneys and city prosecutors have similar responsibilities. The state board, the letter said, has not usurped and has no desire to usurp any of the functions of these authorities, but seeks to cooperate with them.

F.D.R. PUTS CONGRESS ON SPOT

Legislators "Guessing" About President's Frank Message

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt had congress guessing today about his outspokenness toward the courts and plans for wage and hour legislation.

Awaiting definite indication how far he would go, party ranks threatened to split into factions as the alternatives became plainer. The legislators speculated whether Mr. Roosevelt had a specific course in mind to assure "a liberal interpretation" of the constitution by the supreme court.

Budget Message
They had noted—and many Democrats cheered—the cryptic way in which he told congress "means must be found" to adapt the judicial viewpoint "to the actual present national needs."

The discussions were subordinated to neutrality for a brief time. Votes of 80 to 0 in the senate and 403 to 1 in the house to ban arms shipments to Spain disposed of that question temporarily, however, and attention swerved to the prospective Roosevelt recommendations.

His next message was to transmit the budget for the fiscal year beginning in July and request a supplemental relief appropriation to carry out it then.

R. F. C. Legislation
Administration leaders predicted "surprises" in the budget. No substantial cutting down of relief was expected, but a closer approach to "pay as you go" was hinted.

The budget proposals will outline the legislative program in some greater detail on the basis of the general statements in Wednesday's message. Vice President Garner's signature to the embargo resolution will send it to the White House today, as the first item on the program.

Next will come action to extend the Reconstruction corporation's lending authority, the President's power to change the gold value of the dollar, and the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund.

Labor Protection
Leading up to wage and hour regulation, Mr. Roosevelt said he would submit recommendations later on slum clearance, low cost housing, and to farm tenants and broadening of the social security act.

Action by the separate states to protect the laboring man and assure a "just return" for agriculture was a proven impossibility, he said, and "federal laws supplementing state laws are needed."

From this some senators judged that a federal-state wage and hour program may be attempted, possibly using some device such as the tax remittance in the unemployment insurance section of the security act to foster state cooperation.

When Life Was Wholly a Happy Holiday

There was no sinister shadow of a kidnapping over 10-year-old Charles Mattson (in straw hat) during the summer vacation photograph was taken of him and some of his young friends. For more than a week he has been the prisoner of a kidnaper who snatched him from his Tacoma, Wash., home for $28,000 ransom. (Associated Press Photo)

Lathrop Junior High News

With the holidays over, Lathrop students have returned to school to elect new officers for the spring semester which begins the first of February. Student body elections at Lathrop are carried on very much as are civil elections. Two parties, the green and white, are chosen in caucus. Here the candidates give their nomination talks, and two students are nominated by the caucus, for each office. Following nomination there is a student body assembly, where each candidate gives his election speech. Students then return to their home rooms and vote for their choice of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, sergeant-at-arms, and cheer leader.

Students chosen from home rooms as caucus members are James Bayless, Ada Mae Adkins, Charles Chambers, Floye Candell, Durwood Dady, Evelyn Duckett, Rodger Howell, Rose Ann Griggs, Thomas Huffman, Betty Lord, Marvin Mendenhall, Donna Lundak, Lyle Murry, Gloria Miodok, Junior Hadley, Margaret Glockner, Betty J. Reed, Joseph Patterson, Helen Rupert, Junior Steffen, Betty Shidler, Lenore Walker, Billy Warne, Leon Calkins, Jo Lorraine Adams, Norma Edwards, Eugene Frisby, Jack Granados, Betty Haynes, Holly Jones, Rebecca McProud, Dorothy Nelson, George Logan, Raphael Quintana, Don Metz, Richard MacFarland, Molly Maloney, Ruth Murphy, Beverly Short, Rex Smith, Earl Winkler, Glenn J. Tichenor, Rodney Bledsoe, Marjorie Coe, Joe Ryan, Marie Senn, Jimmie Valentine and Mary Van Engen.

Results of the caucus held during the fourth period Wednesday follow: Paul Cleary and Pat Flaherty will compete for president of the student body; Jeanne Lawrence and Bob Musick are running against each other for vice-president; Theodora Pappas and Enid Jones are teammates for secretary, and Clifford Whitford and Ralph Shallenberger will try for sergeant at arms.

Elections will be held at the student body assembly Friday.

The Travel club under Miss Hazel Thrasher's direction enjoyed an interesting program recently under the direction of Bob Brando. He took the class on an imaginary trip to Europe on the "Queen Mary." Visits to England, France and Spain were a part of the tour. A private interview with Mussolini was described. This part of the program was of especial interest to the class, because it showed initiative and originality and was entertaining as well as instructive.

TRANSFER SUIT TO MINTER KIN

To the troubles of Mary Miles Minter, one-time moving picture actress, today was added a court dispute over $48,000 between her sister and her mother, brought here from the Los Angeles superior court.

Alma Margaret Fillmore, sister of the actress, accuses her mother, Mrs. Pearl Miles Reilly of Laguna Beach, of taking $47,750 belonging to the former from a safety deposit box held jointly by the pair. The box was in the Security-First National bank in Los Angeles, the complaint states.

Milburn Harvey, Santa Ana attorney representing Mrs. Reilly, obtained the transfer from Los Angeles to Orange county superior court on grounds Mrs. Reilly is a resident of this county. The local law firms of Harvey & Harvey and Forgy, Reinhaus, & Forgy are associated in the defense.

Richard Cantillon, Los Angeles attorney, prepared the complaint for Mrs. Fillmore.

Mrs. Reilly also is known as Charlotte Selby, the complaint states.

NEGRO TRIBE IS RULED BY PRIESTESS

WASHINGTON. (AP)—A true story of a secluded high priestess ruling a tribe of negroes in Southern Rhodesia, which rivals the most fantastic fiction, was told today at the annual meeting of the Society of American Anthropologists.

Dr. H. Wierschoff of the University of Pennsylvania, who spent many months in southeast Africa excavating ruins, said the tribe was ruled by a woman regarded as both human and divine, acting through a king to whom she transmitted all orders and decisions.

Spiritual Life
Existence of such a priestess, he said, was evident from the customs of the people and other data which he gathered. On several occasions, he declared, he attempted to reach the mountain on which she was reported to dwell, but always was repulsed—sometimes with considerable force.

All important business of the tribe is referred to the priestess by the king through a messenger, the only person allowed to see and talk with her, Dr. Wierschoff said. The priestess, or "Charewa" in the native language, he added, "is not only understood as a human being, but she also has an independent spiritual existence."

Climb Cliffs
She was reported to exercise sole choice of her successor, taken

SNOW COVERS SILVERADO CANYON

There's snow in them thar' mountains! And in Orange county, too, where there are no mountains.

Many Santa Anas are taking a 30-minute drive out to Silverado canyon, where snow yesterday afternoon covered the roofs of houses and cabins and lay on the ground in big patches.

Eddie Sugden, house manager at the West Coast theater, and his wife drove out to Silverado canyon yesterday afternoon and found enough snow on the ground with which to make snowballs. From Santa Ana, they drove to and from the snow in an hour with no trouble.

The Sugdens said that there is a lot of snow on the hills just above the upper end of Silverado canyon, which also is unusual in Orange county. It was estimated that the snow on the hills is about a 10-minute hike distant from the canyon.

from a group of young girls of the tribe who were furnished to look after her.

She also was described as holding dictatorial powers over selection of a new king. Each candidate is required to climb a steep cliff, the successful one finding the task comparatively easy, but the others finding the path greased.

Kaintuck Moon-Shiners Thrive

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—"Moon-shining," synonymous with Kentucky colonels, horse racing and "feudin'," still thrives in the Bluegrass state, the nation's leading liquor-producing commonwealth, if a report of the alcohol tax unit is any criterion.

During 1936, the federal bureau announced, it seized in Kentucky 65 illegal stills, an average of more than 55 a month, 11,491 gallons of non-tax paid liquor, 265,084 gallons of mash and 141 automobiles and trucks.

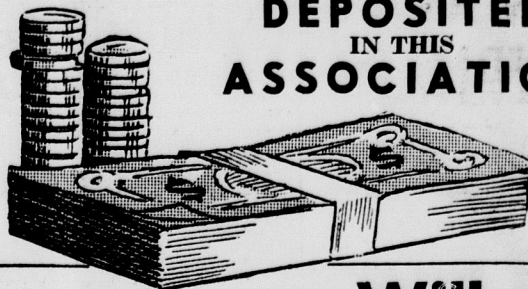

More than 1,000 persons were arrested in raids.

LAGUNA BEACH — Prospective customers for Laguna's palatial dog-pound will ride to their incarceration in style befitting their new domicile, under plans concluded yesterday whereby the city council granted use of an unused fire truck to Humane Officer Fred Walters for his dog hauling business.

The dashing red wagon is expected to find considerable use, judging from the December report submitted to the council by Walters last Wednesday.

Impounded dogs totaled 22, with three of the canines destroyed, while 12 assorted animals were picked up and five destroyed. Owners recovered five animals, while 14 received new homes, according to the report. Licenses were issued for 136 city canines, while 16 county mutts received the new tags.

PROPERTY IS SIMPLIFIED IN NEW MAP

Giant County Project Will End Cumbersome Description Work

"That certain parcel of property described as follows: commencing at a point . . . thence south 18 degrees and 30 minutes west a distance of . . ."

Such clumsy property descriptions, which clutter up the books of the county assessor, tax collector and auditor, one of these days will be replaced by a curt, concise "Block 17, lot 5."

W. K. Hillyard, county surveyor, and a WPA crew of 12 draughtsmen and surveyors are working the change in what is probably the least known local project, to make a gigantic official map listing every piece of property in lots and blocks.

To Cost $14,000

Already the work has been under way for three years, and will continue one more. It has cost the county around $9,000, will cost another $5,000, but is expected to save its expense in three or four years.

This year the project cost $4,349 for the county's contribution in materials and supervision, and brought $11,088 in federal contribution.

The big saving, according to Hillyard, will come when the map is complete and is put in use on the assessor's books. It will simplify checking ownership of land and will allow assessment books and tax bills to carry only the code number instead of the long "metes and bounds" description.

That means a huge saving in typing and addressing machine stencils. Hillyard estimates the saving will be $3000 to $4000 per year.

Lists Owner's Names

Actually the map is composed of hundreds of sheets, to be kept in book form, with on each sheet a map. Each sheet carries one or two blocks, showing the lot numbers, and a list of owners according to the lot numbers.

Real estate men, petition circulators, and others will find it simple to check quickly the ownership on any piece of property. Each sheet of the map is on transparent tracing cloth, so that copies may be made quickly and inexpensively at any time by a photographic process. Name lists will be changed each year if property is transferred.

The city of Santa Ana has the distinction of owning Lot 1, Block 1. It is part of Santa Ana Creek park, in the extreme northeast corner of the city.

Legal for Deeds

All of Santa Ana and supervisory districts Two and Three have been covered, and work is now progressing on District Four. There will be between 5000 and 3000 blocks in the completed map.

Once adopted as an official county map, the new plan is legal for description of property in deeds and other instruments. Hillyard said, but title companies probably won't rely on it.

In San Francisco, where a similar map is in use, deeds carry the traditional description, plus a notation of the block and lot number on the official map.

point program proposed by West, pledged himself to avoid huddles. But he—and West too—were careful not to be arbitrary about it. They left a loophole through which they can crawl into the huddle room.

Here's what the West program, subscribed to by Riley, says: "Public issues should be openly discussed. The board should not adjourn regular sessions for huddle discussions unless extraordinary circumstances warrant. Where executive sessions are advisable for discussions they should be held before or after regular board meetings."

It All Depends
It all depends upon what constitutes "extraordinary circumstances." It would be awfully easy to decide the circumstances were extraordinary if something was coming up that the board simply didn't want to make public.

West, of course, stands by his own program. Anyway, he long ago declared himself against huddles. He has kept out of them—except under circumstances which he regarded as extraordinary. On one or two of these occasions he has explained that he wasn't huddling, anyway. The board, he said, had declared a recess, and was just holding a conference in the huddle room, in which he was participating.

Finley has expressed himself rather paradoxically. When asked by The Journal if he intended to participate in huddles, he said, "Yes." But, when asked if he would insist that the board's business be transacted in public, he also replied in the affirmative.

But Finley amplified his answers.

He was asked, "Will you go into huddles when the rest of the board is in such a session merely to discuss a problem and decide what action shall be taken in the open?"

He replied, "It would depend upon the nature of the matter to be discussed."

Another question, "If the board declared a recess during a session and then went into conference in the committee room, would you participate in the conference, or

Adobe Ruins of Old Santa Ana Recall Time When Pico 'Pulled Fast One' on 'Mayor'

By ALFONSO YORBA

Hidden beneath the modern town of Olive lie the adobe ruins of Santa Ana Vieja (Old Santa Ana), one of this county's ancient Spanish settlements during California's pastoral days.

Although not the oldest settlement in the county—San Juan, the Grijalva rancho house, Santa Ana Abajo, and Jose Antonio Yorba's house between Santa Ana Abajo and Santa Ana Vieja having been built previously—this town's beginnings are shrouded in the uncertainty of the opening decades of the last century and can be fixed definitely within the dates of 1801 and 1821 when California was subject to the crown of Spain.

For the 1801 Grijalva map, earliest survey of the Santa Ana region, shows no house on the spot, while Pico Pico, in 1821 indicates the existence of a settlement there in the following manner:

It seems the last royal alcalde of Los Angeles, don Jose Maria Avila, although an illiterate man, was fond of exercising the municipal power in an exaggerated form and had demanded passports of all travelers entering his dominions. He had informed the Yorbos of Santa Ana Vieja of this new rule so they might advise all unlucky travelers not to enter Los Angeles passports.

Pico Pico's "Passport"

Pico Pico, then a youth of 20, was traveling with his mother from San Diego, and had no sooner reached Santa Ana Vieja than he was arrested by the alcalde and taken to the jail. Pico Pico, then a youth of 20, was traveling with his mother from San Diego, and had no sooner reached Santa Ana Vieja than he was arrested by the alcalde and taken to the jail.

Always equal to the circumstances, Pico remembered that Avila, an old soldier, could neither read nor write, and then and there asked the Yorbos for pen, ink, and paper, and instantly drew up an imposing looking "passport," attaching thereto the name of Comandante Ruiz of the royal presidio of San Diego, and bidding his friends farewell, continued his journey.

Selecting an opportune moment when Avila was surrounded by notables and looking "passports," attaching thereto the name of Comandante Ruiz of the royal presidio of San Diego, and bidding his friends farewell, continued his journey.

1836 Census Taken
From the time of Pico's early visit, to the present, we have a well connected story of Santa Ana Vieja. The writer has seen letters dated as early as 1834 at the little pueblo, and government records in Los Angeles refer frequently to it all during the Mexican regime.

In 1836—fully a century ago—a census was taken at the growing town, then the seat of an auxiliary alcalde government, which revealed a population of 51 Californians, exclusive of Indian servants, laborers, and vaqueros.

Proprietors of the town, which was on the privately owned Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana, included Tomas Yorba, 47, and family; Juan Pablo Peralta II, 36, and family; and Felipe, 30, Jose, 27, Rafael, 25, Paula, 24, Josefa and Candelaria Peralta, 18. Other families residing there with the Yorba and Peralta heirs included the Garcia, Rio, Bona, Canedo, Vergara, Lopez, Ruiz, Manriquez, Bustamante and Zuniga families, mostly originating in San Diego, San Juan, or Los Angeles.

Bernardino Yorba had by this time crossed the river and set up his own establishment at Santa Ana Arriba (now called Yorba), where he was soliciting the grant of the San Antonio or Canon de Santa Ana Rancho, while Teodosio, the youngest brother, spent much of his time in Los Angeles.

On 1839 Map
Three years later the elder brother, Jose Antonio Yorba II, auxiliary alcalde, proprietor, and ranchero of the town of Santa Ana Abajo (about five miles southwest of Santa Ana Vieja) sought to have sub-granted to himself all the Santiago de Santa Ana Rancho south of the camino real which passed a little south of Santa Ana Vieja—a petition that was never granted.

On the interesting map supporting this claim, drawn up in 1839 and filed in Monterey, Santa Ana Vieja appears for the first time, under the title of the "Rancho de Santa Ana," with several houses, vineyards, and fields shown in the plot—which may be seen reproduced in Terry Stephenson's book "Camino Viejos." The year 1846 found the town greatly enlarged and under the control of Teodosio Yorba, who had just acquired the Lomas de Santiago Rancho to the east. Tomas had died the year previous and Bernardino Yorba had a town of his own started on his rancho across the river.

This was the state of things in would you regard that as a huddle and stay away?"

Finley replied that this also would depend upon the nature of the business to be transacted, but "if the intent is to conceal facts from the public, I would not approve of the huddle."

Huddle Path Well Worn
Obviously, Finley favors transacting as much of the board's business as possible in the open. But he also, when extraordinary circumstances warrant, will participate in huddles.

Smith and Mitchell have worn well-defined paths on the carpet from their chairs to the huddle room, and they have announced no change in their itineraries.

But with three other members having declared themselves against all but extraordinary huddles, it is apparent that the trails to the huddle room will not be worn down in the future as rapidly as they have been in the past.

Santa Ana Vieja on the outbreak of the Mexican war in California when more than one army or famous personage was to visit the tiny pueblo on the march to or from Los Angeles.

Pico Takes Refuge

First to bring news of the serious state of affairs was none other than our old friend Pico Pico—no longer the carefree youth of 20 who played jokes on illiterate alcaldes—but now constitutional governor of the department of both Californias, who arrived early in August, accompanied by don Ignacio del Valle and a militia man.

After ascertaining that Fremont and the American army were encamped as unwelcome guests at Santa Ana Abajo, and unaware of his presence in the neighborhood, Pico, who spent the night at don Teodosio's house, informed his friend that lack of munitions and the desertion of General Castro had left the capital, Los Angeles, defenseless, and that on the request of the legislative assembly, he was attempting to make his way to Sonora to secure financial and military aid to repel the Yankee invasion.

Having passed the night safely—the roads being patrolled by Yorba scouting parties—the guests bid farewell to don Teodosio early the next morning, del Valle returning to Los Angeles and the governor going to San Juan.

For five months the war went on with varying fortunes, the Yorba ranches furnishing volunteer soldiers, cattle, horses and supplies to the defenders under Provisional Governor and Commandante General Flores, until, on the sixth of January, 1847, things took a turn for the worse.

Stockton's Army Arrives
Early that morning Comandante Andres Pico, chief of military operations in the sector of San Diego, and a small force of lancers rode into Santa Ana Vieja and ordered the few remaining men to immediately evacuate all the women and children to San Gabriel and to strip the place of all livestock and provisions, as the American army under Stockton was on the march from Los Alisos and due to arrive before nightfall.

Thus it was a deserted town that greeted the weary conquering army late that afternoon, but Californian scouting parties under Ramon Carrillo, Juan Manriquez, and "El Huero" Higuera lurked in the hills ready to take advantage of any lack of vigilance on the part of Stockton's troops.

Stockton and his engineers selected a spot to the west of the town, with the protection of a large rancho on one side, for a campsite and bivouacked for the night, and the following day crossed the Santa Ana on the road to Los Coyotes. Juan Forster, brother-in-law of Governor Pico, and owner of generous land grants under the Mexican Californian government, accompanied Stockton's army, furnishing it with supplies and endeavoring to induce as many of the Californians as possible to desert their governor and countrymen and accept the American conquest.

Forster Scores
Having fallen into the Santa Ana river with his horse at this point, Forster returned to the pueblo to look for a change of clothes and was promptly captured by Carrillo's scouting party whom he endeavored to detain from their allegiance. Governor Flores, Carrillo, an ardent patriot, pretended to listen to Forster's promises, and begged him to get some written assurances of protection from Stockton and to present himself, with other friends of the Americans, at the Colima rancho on the San Gabriel the next day.

In high hopes Forster, Don Juan Abila and others rode to the Colima house, arriving before Carrillo. While changing horses Forster learned that the Californian army was in battle formation in a skilfully prepared ambush on the Mesa de los Lugos ready to annihilate the unsuspecting Americans on their next day's march. Rushing back to betray these plans to his American friends at Los Coyotes, Forster escaped the fate of Abila and others of his party who were arrested by Carrillo's orders and placed without arms in the first line of trenches of the ambush, so as to be fired on by the Americans first reaching the position.

Pueblo Becomes American
Forster's information saved both Stockton's army, Abila, and his other friends from destruction and was instrumental in speeding completing the second American conquest of California by which this former Mexican territory, as well as little Santa Ana Vieja, became part of the United States.

Except for the imprisonment and escape of the great Southern Californian bandolero don Juan Flores in Santa Ana Vieja in 1857, life now lapsed into the uneventful pastoral days of Spanish times and the outside world was forgotten.

Bills were figured in pesos and reales, grain was measured in quintales, as of yore, and grazing and farming went on undisturbed. Desiderio Burrul, son-in-law of don Teodosio Yorba, occupied the latter's patriarchal position in the little adobe settlement until a decade of the court in 1868 broke the community ownership of the Yorba-Peralta heirs, partitioned the old rancho, and spelled the downfall of this and the other Spanish California rancho towns, opening up the valley to American immigration.

Soon the California community at Santa Ana Vieja broke up and newcomers permitted the old adobe to fall into ruin and disappear, and then, as new Santa Ana adopted the ancient pueblo's name, the latter was changed to Olive, and Santa Ana Vieja of Spanish and Mexican days was but a memory.

MORE ABOUT BUDGET

government would "be able to attain in 1939 a completely balanced budget with full provision for meeting the statutory requirements for debt reduction."

Expenditure Drop
Final figures on relief outlays were withheld until later. Mr. Roosevelt said about $850,000,000 of additional funds would be needed to carry on work relief through June 30.

Including the estimated relief sum, expenditures for the 1938 period would aggregate $7,994,000,000—a drop of $786,000,000 from projected outlays for the current fiscal year.

Mr. Roosevelt, citing generally improving business conditions, forecast next year's receipts at $7,293,000,000.

Thus, retirement from the expenditure column, income would match outgo for the first time since 1930.

Taxes Extended

The budget provided funds for no new governmental activities. It referred to a promised message on administrative reorganization which Mr. Roosevelt said "will undoubtedly result in some saving in expenditures."

To keep present revenue channels open, the executive recommended extension of a group of miscellaneous taxes scheduled to expire next June and July. He urged that levies which automatically would be reduced next June be retained at current rates.

The predicted increase in public debt from $34,492,000 today to $35,026,000,000 in six months was attributed in part to the request for a supplemental appropriation of $790,000,000—$650,000,000 for relief and activities of the resettlement administration, the remainder to pay obligations to be created this year and paid next.

Liquidate PWA

Included also was a request for $100,000,000 to finance projected extension of the Civilian Conservation Corps from March 31 to June 30. Funds also were provided for the CCC in 1938, and Mr. Roosevelt recommended that congress make the corps a permanent government agency.

The budget envisioned liquidation of the Public Works Administration as such providing only $10,000,000 for administrative expenses in 1938.

But at a press conference in which Mr. Roosevelt and his top financial advisers answered reporters' questions about the new budget, it was explained the $200,000,000 PWA revolving fund would be used for loans and grants to municipalities during the remainder of this fiscal year whenever the money was employed to give work to persons on work relief rolls.

Works Program

Indications were that this fund would be used similarly next year. An agency to administer it was not designated, however.

For a general public works program next year, including roads, rivers and harbors and such items, the budget provided outlays of $451,100,000—an estimate in line with Mr. Roosevelt's previously announced policy for a "permanent" program costing around $500,000,000 annually.

The budget revised upward earlier estimates of both revenues and expenditures for this fiscal year, with better business bringing higher income expectations and drought relief contributing to the increased costs.

Revenue for the current year was forecast at $5,828,150,000, compared with a September estimate of $5,665,839,000 and actual income of $4,115,956,000 last year.

Revenue Increase
Predictions of the $5,828,150,000 would show a $717,573,000 increase over the September estimate but a $399,194,000 drop under 1936 outlays.

For 1938, Mr. Roosevelt said that "the expected increase in revenue and decrease in expenditures for relief and other public works programs will result in a general improvement in the general economic conditions of the country."

The projected $1,465,456,000 upturn of receipts over the current year to $7,293,607,000 would result largely from an anticipated 41 per cent gain in income tax collections.

The President said the 1938 revenue act "gives every indication of satisfactorily accomplishing" its purposes. These aims were listed as replacement of revenue lost through processing tax invalidation, amortization of the bonus and equalization of tax burdens.

Total Is Less

On the expenditure side, the budget provided $5,841,968,000 for regular government operations. This would be $740,821,000 higher than the estimate for this year if bonus outlays were excepted.

The boost was attributed to increased social security requirements, additional expenditures for general public works and greater spending for national defense. The national defense item included funds for starting construction of two new battleships.

With the $1,537,125,000 work relief outlay, aggregate expenditures for "recovery and relief" next year would total $1,853,154,000, or $963,003,000 under this year's estimate.

If spending were held to the estimates, the administration would borrow no new money in 1937-38.

For this year, the public debt will rise $1,248,000,000, only partially reflecting a gross deficit of $2,652,654,000. The difference was accounted for by deduction of debt retirements from the gross deficit and the use of $900,000,000 from the treasury's cash balance for deficit financing.

The debt did not take into account treasury borrowing to carry out its gold "sterilization" program—a policy recently inaugurated to lessen the inflation possibilities in gold imports.

SAN DIEGO CHAMPS PLAY SAINT FIVE HERE

Column Left

—By—
PAUL WRIGHT

Basketball, as delightful a treat to some fans as football, finds a prominent place on the athletic calendar for the next six weeks. Just for the fun of it, this department wants to go on record right now with the prediction that championships will be earned by the following:

Stanford in the Pacific Coast conference, although University of California is favored in the Bay region.

Long Beach Poly in the Coast Preparatory league of which Santa Ana's Saints are a member.

Fullerton in the Eastern J. C. conference where Santa Ana's Dons roam. And Tustin in the Orange Prep league, after a three-game playoff with the Orange Panthers who shaded them by one point, 27-26, in a practice game this week.

Puzzling indeed in the brevity of the Coast league's 1937 schedule. Opening tonight, the conference season closes Jan. 22. Two weeks! Coach Reece Greene of the Saints, who along with Charley Church of Long Beach Poly wanted a longer schedule, will round out the local season in special exhibitions with Orange and Fullerton. Orange comes here Jan. 26. The Saints go to Fullerton Jan. 29.

The Pacific Coast conference's basketball opener between U. C. L. A. and U. S. C. at Pan-Pacific auditorium tonight will be heard over KEHE at 8 o'clock. Associated Sports-caster Frank Bull will be at the microphone.

Franklin Guthrie, sports editor of El Don, Santa Ana Jaycee weekly, is being mentioned as a probable successor to The Journal's Vic Rowland as president of the Associated Students for the second semester at the Main street plant.

Attendance has been small at basketball games here because seating accommodations in Andrews gymnasium are so limited. Enthusiasm has been kept alive by the Saints, who taxed their limited quarters to capacity last winter, but the Dons slipped noticeably.

In an effort to stimulate interest in the cage sport, jaycee student officials are putting on a wider advertising campaign. As a novel part of it, free tickets will be awarded each week to subscribers whose names appear in the classified ad columns of The Journal. Ten complimentary tickets will be given every week. Names will appear Jan. 12-14-22 and Feb. 12-23-26. Look for yours!

Hot off the wire: California's new ski jump, recently completed at Badger Pass in Yosemite, has been built under Olympic specifications, and will permit jumps of 100 feet. . . . George Anderson, the ex-Pasadena flash who used to run against Santa Ana's Saints, will be able to report for University of California track after all. Operations on his knees for loose cartilages last year brought announcement he was through. But Anderson, who has run the century under 10 secs., believes he is ready again. . . . Pomona college has not beaten Occidental in basketball since Bill Anderson took over the coaching reigns at Eagle Rock in '32. . . . Harry Kipke, the Michigan coach, has been appointed on a commitment to study the gambling evil in college football. The increase in gambling last year was unbelievable, a recent report to the Football Coaches Association of America revealed. Professional gamblers are even sending men around to get inside information on team preparations, player injuries, etc. . . . Drivers of midget automobiles under the banner of the Northern California Racing association will reap an extra reward for risking life and limb during the past six months. Bonuses have been paid 109 active drivers.

WOOLEN MILLS WINS, 40-35

Ed Eastham Quits Don Five

Another strong quintet of university caliber fell before the sizzling attack of the Santa Ana Woolen Mills, 40 to 35, in Andrews gym at the high school last night.

Manager Quentin Matzen's local cagers, who travel to play Redlands college varsity next Tuesday night before launching their Metropolitan league schedule here the following Thursday, won over the Whittier Junior Chamber of Commerce team here because of a quick start.

The Woolen Mills gained a 24-14 advantage which the invaders, although picking up rapidly, could not overcome. Whittier led in the second half, 21 to 16.

High-scoring honors were shared by Fred Wiemer, Bill Kolkhorst and Ed Eastham, Silverwood, who scored 32 points among them. Mike Reynolds, the ex-Stanford star who played with the Shell Oil quintet here last winter, led Whittier's all-stars with 13 points to Teammate Chisler's 10.

Ed Eastham, big fellow who has withdrawn from the junior college squad to work next semester, had joined the Woolen Mills' squad.

Woolen Mills (40) Pps. (35) Whittier Silverwood (10) F. (10) Chisler Kolkhorst (11) C. (10) Reynolds Wiemer (11) G. (6) Magnusson L. Lockhart (6) C. (2) Ercece McChesney (15) Reynolds

Score by Halves 24 16-40

County Preps Open Cage Schedule Tonight

ANAHEIM AND H. B., TUSTIN ALL TRAVEL

Orange Engages Brea in Non-League Test; Date Set for '37 Playoff

There will be war—basketball war—on five fronts in the Orange Prep league's 10-school athletic alliance tonight.

Major and minor divisions both begin a spirited melon-tossing drive to dethrone Huntington Beach's Oilers, coached by Leon W. Miner, as champions.

Class B Prelims Varsity features at 8 o'clock will be preceded an hour earlier by Class B games. Valencia will play all "home" games at Brea-Olinda, pending completion of the Placentia school's new gymnasium.

Tustin's Tillers, generally recognized as the pre-season favorites in the minor division, open their campaign against Valencia at Brea-Olinda. They will employ their crack variety of Paul Linker and Sam Francis, Vic and Walt Linker and Larry Monroy. San Juan Capistrano plays at Laguna Beach in a "grudge" match between heated rivals.

Anaheim, always a threat because of its natural ability and a "cheese-box" gymnasium which bothers all rivals, goes to Garden Grove. Huntington Beach's champions begin the defense of their laurels at Newport Harbor.

Orange vs. Brea Orange of the majors and Brea-Olinda of the minors, drawing the first-round byes, will keep busy in a practice game at Orange tonight.

Four games will decide titles in both divisions, and the finalists will meet in a series of Feb. 12-16-19 for the grand championship.

The complete schedule:

MAJOR DIVISION

Jan. 8—Anaheim at Garden Grove, Huntington Beach at Newport Harbor, Orange bye.

Jan. 15—Newport Harbor at Anaheim, Orange at Huntington Beach, Garden Grove bye.

Jan. 22—Garden Grove at Huntington Beach, Orange at Newport Harbor, Anaheim bye.

Jan. 29—Huntington Beach at Anaheim, Garden Grove at Orange, Newport Harbor bye.

Feb. 5—Anaheim at Orange, Newport Harbor at Garden Grove, Huntington Beach bye.

Feb. 12-16-19—Playoff with minor division finalist for 1937 championship.

MINOR DIVISION

Jan. 8—San Juan Capistrano at Laguna Beach, Tustin at Valencia, Brea bye.

Jan. 15—Laguna Beach at Tustin, San Juan Capistrano at Brea, Valencia bye.

Jan. 22—Brea at Laguna Beach, Valencia at San Juan Capistrano, Tustin bye.

Jan. 29—Valencia at Brea, Tustin at San Juan Capistrano, Laguna Beach bye.

Feb. 5—Laguna Beach at Valencia, Brea at Tustin, San Juan Capistrano bye.

Feb. 12-16-19—Playoff with major division finalist for 1937 championship.

'CAP HORSE IS INVESTIGATED

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—At the request of the horse's owner, Santa Anita stewards are investigating today a story that Blue Boot, contender in the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap, is a "ringer."

Mysterious telegrams and telephone calls from a Texas city, informing him that his 4-year-old filly is not the real Blue Boot, were reported by Earl Beezley.

Refusing the horse's entry until completion of an inquiry, track stewards ordered detectives to check the assertion that a Blue Boot, with registration papers to prove it, is on a Texas farm.

Breezley claimed his filly in good faith for $2000 in a race at Riverside park, Kansas City. He received what appeared to be bona fide registration papers. Earlier in the meeting, Blue Boot had won an $800 race that was understood to have been a big betting coup with middlewestern bookmakers as victims.

Last summer Blue Boot won the $10,000 Longacres mile for Breezley and captured several handicaps at Northern California tracks in the fall. Breezley said he rejected an offer of $10,000 for the racer a month ago and thinks highly of his chances in the $100,000 handicap next month.

Coast Leaguers to Convene Tuesday

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Baseball magnates of the Pacific Coast league will gather here next Tuesday to thresh out final arrangements for the 1937 season.

President W. C. Tuttle, issuing a call for the meeting, said the campaign will open April 3 with Portland at Oakland, Mission at San Francisco, San Diego at Los Angeles and Seattle at Sacramento.

Venturi May Extend Ambitious Ambers Tonight

ELKS SECURE COACH LIEB FOR TALK

Tom Lieb, Loyola's famous football coach, assured Chairman Ralph (Bill) Cole today that he will be present for the Santa Ana Elks' third annual athletic night to which the public is invited here Tuesday.

Two members each from the Los Angeles Bulldogs and the Chicago Bears, professional football teams which clash at Gilmore stadium this week-end, also will be here for the program, which will be held in the B. P. O. E. hall on North Sycamore. Harold (Red) Grange, Illinois' famed griddler, may appear. He coaches the Bears.

Ernie Johnson of Santa Ana, veteran scout for the Boston Red Sox, will relate some of his baseball experiences as an added attraction.

Coach Jeff Cravath, member of Santa Ana's 1921 championship gridders, will represent University of Southern California, and there is a possibility Howard Jones or Sam Barry—or both—will attend. Illness may force Bill Spaulding of U. C. L. A. to refuse an invitation, although the Bruins will be represented.

Special guests will be the athletic squads of Santa Ana High school and Junior college, and the coaches and captains from all prep schools in the county.

Bears Hold Secret Drill at Gilmore

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Coached by Harold (Red) Grange and Luke Johnson, the Chicago Bears worked out behind closed gates today for their pro-football battle Sunday with the Los Angeles Bulldogs at Gilmore stadium.

A turnout of more than 15,000 is expected for the game.

Wrestling Last Night

By the Associated Press WASHINGTON. — Gino Gribaldi, 216, Italy, threw Henry Piers, 222, Holland, 30 minutes.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Gus Sonnenberg, 201, Boston, defeated Wally Dusek, 202, Omaha, Neb., two out of three falls.

NEW CONTRACT IS ASSURED COACH JONES AT U. S. C.

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Chances of Howard Jones returning to Iowa as football coach vanished today when he announced his determination to keep his job at the University of Southern California.

Head man of Troy's football destinies since 1925, Jones said, "I am entirely satisfied at Southern California."

"I am not interested in offers to coach at any other institution," he added. "To leave here would be my greatest regret. I have decided to stay with the Trojans."

A conference yesterday with President R. B. Von KleinSmid, Jones said, assured him of "100 per cent support" and "this assurance is sufficient to make me wish to continue my happy connections at Southern California."

Ambers Rated 6-5 Favorite In New York

NEW YORK. (AP)—Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers and his potential challenger, Enrico Venturi, tangle in a non-title 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Strictly on their recent showings, the betting has been near even money. A week ago, Venturi was a 7 to 5 favorite. The odds went down until Ambers ruled at 6-5.

Since Ambers defeated Tony Canzoneri for the 135-pound crown several months ago, he was outpointed by Eddie Cool of Philadelphia, a fair lightweight, and too, a sound thrashing from comebacker Jimmy McLarnin. Some experts believe he won't last out the year on the division throne.

Venturi, on the other hand, has created considerable havoc in the lightweight group in recent months. Since coming from Italy a year ago, he hasn't lost a fight in a dozen starts.

The supporting card includes Lightweight Bobby Pacho, Mexican belter from California, against Frankie Blair of Camden, N. J., in an eight-rounder.

L. B. RELAYS TO BE RUN MAR. 6

LONG BEACH. — The Long Beach relays, a track and field meet which has developed into one of the outstanding affairs of its kind on the Pacific coast, will be held here on Saturday, March 6.

The meet again will be held on Stephens field, Woodrow Wilson High school.

Yale All-America Is Offered $8000

NEW ORLEANS. (AP)—Larry Kelley, Yale's highly publicized end, has about succumbed to the golden lure of professional football.

"I have a proposition that will net me about $8000 a year," he said during a stopover en route home from the East-West game in San Francisco.

Rightmire Fights Hansford Tonight

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Everett Rightmire, ranking young Iowa featherweight, makes his bow tonight before Hollywood fight fans in a 10-round encounter with George Hansford, rugged 128-pounder from Los Angeles.

The visitor rated an edge over Hansford.

Fights Last Night

By the Associated Press NEW YORK. — Kid Chocolate, 128½, Cuba, outpointed Joey La Fauci, 133½, Astoria, L. I. (8).

INDIANAPOLIS. — Paul Lee, 125½, Indianapolis, and Jimmy Buckler, 126, Louisville, drew (10).

Mike Jacobs collected $60,000 salary for directing the 1935 Century Sporting club in 1935. Lester Patrick, coach of the New York hockey Rangers, was paid $17,500. . . . Carl Hubbell's great left arm was worth $17,500 to the Giants.

GOLF CHAMPS OPEN FIRING FOR $8000

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Firing started over the sporty Griffith Park course today as a host of the nation's leading golfers lined up for the first 18 holes of the twelfth annual Los Angeles Open.

Gunning for the biggest purse in California's 1937 winter golf program, $8000, 128 shotmakers were qualified for the four-day meet, with its final 18-hole round scheduled for Monday.

Winner picks shied away from their self-imposed task after glancing over the field.

With the exception of Bobby Cruickshank, 1927 winner, every champion was entered in this year's event. Denny Shute, Craig Wood, Ed Dudley of Los Angeles, Jimmy Hines, Long Island, Harry Cooper and Vic Ghezzi.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK. (AP)—Those poor New York tennis writers who picked Vines over Perry (and it was unanimous) feel just like the fight experts the morning after the Schmeling-Louis fight.

Rice and Louisiana State are in a hot race to bag Griff Vaux, star back of Schreiner institute at Kerville, Tex. . . . Everybody says the kid has it to spare.

If it interests anyone, Branch Rickey says he's still working on a trade for Dizzy Dean.

Art Ross, manager of the Boston hockey Bruins, popped off in Detroit and accused Maj. Fredrick McLaughlin of trying to make gentlemen out of his Chicago Blackhawks. . . . Ouch!

Joe Louis has to have special boxing gloves made because of the length of his thumbs. . . . Loyola (New Orleans) is flirting with Red Strader, line coach at St. Mary's.

(KEHE) will broadcast the Trojan-Bruin game from the Pan-Pacific auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight.

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—University of Southern California and University of California at Los Angeles open the 1937 southern division basketball season tonight in their new battleground, the Pan-Pacific auditorium.

The Trojans, boasting a better practice-game record, were favored.

BILL FLOOD PLAYS Bill Flood, former Santa Ana High school forward and guard who received all-tournament recognition with the Saint champions at the Southern Counties Invitational in Huntington Beach in 1935, will see action tonight when the U. S. C. Frosh play the U. C. L. A. yearlings in a preliminary to the Trojan-Bruin encounter.

Flood wears No. 15. He is not listed in the probable starting lineup.

ored over the U. C. L. A. Bruins. U. S. C. has won nine and lost one, while U. C. L. A. has won four and dropped five.

While neither squad is expected to turn in a championship season, they are evenly matched in experience. Coach Sam Barry's Trojans are led by Captain and All-Coast Guard Eddie Oram, while Caddy Works' Bruins have a powerful center in John Ball.

S. C. has never been defeated by U. C. L. A. since 1932, and has chalked up 16 straight victories. The game is set for 8:15.

Stanford and California do not play until next week. Probable starting lineups with numbers:

FIRETHORN HERE FOR BIG RACE

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Firethorn, W. M. Jefford's outstanding candidate in the coming $100,000 Santa Anita handicap, reached the Arcadia track today after a prolonged journey from the east.

Various reports as just leaving the coast, S. C., or the Jefford's home station at Glen Ridge, Pa., and "lost in transit," the winner of the Suburban handicap last spring was traveling with nine stable mates in charge of Trainer Preston Burch.

With arrival of Firethorn, virtually all the nominees for the rich handicap are on the scene, tuning up for the big race Feb. 27.

LOOKS like perhaps we might work up a first class battle between a couple of our beach communities—go ahead, somebody, and mention building permits!

Seems as if Newporters are a wee bit upset about the building business. At Laguna (it was my own fault) building permits leaped and bounded past the million-dollar mark. Those permits included places such as Three Arch Bay and South Laguna. Laguna's own permit total was slightly less than $800,000.

However, builders in the Newport area sniffed when that story was printed. "Rivalry is alright," they said, "But when others take to the back country to bolster up their figures—"

The harbor district, they said, with slight sarcasm, also could have a million in construction if they'd add in Costa Mesa, and perhaps Huntington Beach!

I still insist the whole affair's my fault. The story came in from Laguna—via Redmond Barnett. The correct total for Laguna was given. But, with true newspaperish ability to add and subtract a few things, I popped in with some more figures from nearby places. Made a more imposing total, see? And therefore a better story.

And now Newporters are angry, and I don't blame 'em. "Here," they snort, "We had a slightly larger total than Laguna, and they claim more than a million smackers!"

I apologize, and take all the blame. The story was my own fault and I shouldn't a done it. So there!

Speaking of weather—or maybe it was Newport—I saw something yesterday that'd make the hair of the average Californian curl!

You'll remember, I've been squeaking in my own fumbling fashion about movies being "looked" on Balboa Island. Bing Crosby, and such persons.

Well, knowing that the sun should shine yesterday afternoon (consult Journal's weather report) and that all should be well in the weather line, I popped down to the island yacht club. Sure enough, they were taking movies!

The famous names weren't present. Too cold. But a number of lesser lights, including a gang of Kanakas from Honolulu, were there in force.

The scene, as far as I could figure, had to do with a schooner departing from in front of the yacht club. The club was decorated to lead observers to believe it was located in the Hawaiian Islands.

Anyway, the schooner was to leave, aided by a goodly number of these Kanakas. They were to swim in front of the boat, ostensibly towing the 50-footer.

The weather—Harry Welch! shoot me for this—was so cold that a Polar bear would have been overcome with joy—or ice. And those poor Hawaiians had to jump overboard, and spend almost an hour hanging on to ropes and things, while supervisors and such people ran about, giving orders.

They'd order the Kanakas would paddle desperately. Cameras would grind, or grunt, or whatever cameras do, and all would look well. But each time someone or other—perhaps the cook—wouldn't be satisfied with the performance, and they'd do it over again.

When the scene started, the Hawaiian gentlemen were sort of chocolate-colored. When it was over, they were more than blue!

Most admired were the palm trees, which transformed the yacht club into a tropical paradise. (The same trees the storm of a week or so ago blew over.)

The trunks of the palms were, as far as I could discover, synthetic. Some sort of composition, with ordinary palm leaves, like on the tree in the backyard, tied on top. Cocoanuts were tied to the trunks, and they looked most realistic. Add a few smaller palm trees—living ones—and some hibiscus bushes, and the club building really looked like a tropical paradise.

Except for that cold, cold wind! For the second time within a year, I've discovered a church that's out of debt!

Over in Wintersburg, the Rev. Joseph Thompson and his Wintersburg Community Methodist church members are celebrating. All bills have been satisfied—you'll have to admit that's something to crow about, and we won't blame 'em if they brag a bit.

From what I've heard, W. F. Slater, chairman, and his finance committee are to blame for this condition!

I'm getting ready to sue Sam Meyer at Newport Beach. I called on Sam the other day. He acted real pleasant-like, although I detected a sort of hypnotic gleam in his eye.

I hardly remember what happened, after we started a conversation about the high price of shoe buckles in upper Patagonia, but I've just awakened to the fact that Sam borrowed at least one

DANGEROUS LANDINGS

By LOIS BULL—Author of 'Captive Goddess'

When Linda Marshall, American girl, is "lost over the Pacific" on a solo round-the-world flight, Tommy Jerry, who is in love with her, has secret knowledge that her disappearance was deliberate and is connected, in some way, with her uncle, Cornelius Marshall, a scientist supposed to have been lost years ago, on an expedition in the Pacific. Tommy goes out to Hong Kong. He and a friend, Jerry Mitchell, newspaperman, discover that Linda is being held prisoner on an island off Hong Kong by a man named Patrick Lane. They rescue her, and take her to Jerry's cottage on another island. Linda is being held prisoner on an island in the Pacific, that Lane had brought her from there to Hong Kong for the ostensible purpose of delivering a message for her uncle, but then had made a prisoner of her.

"But Linda," asked Tommy, puzzled, "how could a submarine have been brought secretly into this harbor, patrolled as it is?"

"I don't suppose you noticed those three fishing junks?" she replied. "One of them has a hollow hull. Camouflage!" She was shaking him. "I'm cold. Clothes, Jerry! Any kind of clothes! I'm freezing."

Jerry led the way into the cottage, found a kerosene lamp and lighted it. Then he unearthened some white slacks and a flannel shirt.

"Could you make out in those until I can get ashore and beg, borrow or steal something better? While you're changing, I'll get chow together... coffee... yes, and beans... and here's a tin of biscuits. Cheers!"

When Linda had gone into an adjoining room to change, the two men exchanged significant glances. They were both thinking of those three junks going out to sea at sunset, of the deep water harbor, that pier, and the strange shed with the humming noise inside.

Tommy called, "I say, Linda, we've got to declare Jerry in on all this, haven't we?"

"Jerry's in with both feet, and he may live to be sorry for it!" Linda replied, emerging from the next room in the white slacks and flannel shirt. To the casual observer, there might now have been three young men in the cottage, except that one of them had rather boyish, very unruly curly hair. "Supposing I tell you my story first, I don't expect you to believe more than a little of it. I myself am still confused and—more than a little frightened."

Then, over their coffee and beans, Linda unfolded the whole story of what had happened to her since she and Tommy had parted in London. It had all begun before that. Several months before, in fact, when a mysterious letter had come to her, postmarked from Hong Kong. She showed them the letter. It read:

"My dear niece, Linda: No doubt you will be surprised to hear from

Additional Sports GRANT, BUDGE MIDWAY FIVE ADVANCE UPSETS U. B.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (AP)—The South's rival slayers of net giants renewed their personal feud today in the Biltmore tennis tournament.

A year ago, unassuming Arthur Hendrix pounded Bryan M. (Bitty) Grant out of the Biltmore semi-finals, thereby gaining much of the confidence that carried him to 10th place in the national rankings.

They faced each other across a net at New Orleans last week, with Grant getting revenge in straight sets. Today, again in the Biltmore semi-finals, Hendrix hopes to turn the tables.

He disposed of No. 2 ranked Frankie Parker, counted among the outstanding contenders for 1937 Davis Cup squad, in yesterday's quarter finals, 8-6, 1-6, 6-2. Grant was pressed to win from Gardner Mulloy of Miami, eastern clay singles champion, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Don Budge of Oakland, Calif., had last year's winner, Charles Harris of Palm Beach, for opposition on the other side of the semi-final bracket. Budge disposed of Wayne Sabin, Los Angeles, 7-5, 7-5, yesterday, while Harris trimmed Ricardo Morales, Cuban ace, 6-2, 6-4.

Cronin of Boston Picks Yanks to Retain A. L. Flag

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Joe Cronin, youthful manager of the American league Boston Red Sox, today tabbed the world's champion New York Yankees as "the team to beat" this year.

Cronin, who is spending a few days here with his family before returning to Boston for spring training, said most clubs are out to "knock down the Yankees," but "it's not going to be an easy job. McCarthy has a powerful club."

"Still," he philosophized, "baseball is a funny game. Last year most observers picked our club as the one to beat. Of course, we got nothing, but if some of the players we purchased had delivered as we had every reason to believe they would, I am satisfied we would have caused the Yankees a lot of trouble."

The Red Sox pilot said he's satisfied with his club, "though if I had an outfielder just one-half as good as Joe DiMaggio (hard-hitting Yankee centerfielder), I wouldn't fear the Yankees half as much as I do. What a ball player that DiMaggio is!"

BRIGHAM SHADES AGGIES

DAVIS. (AP)—A last-second basket by Guard Detmar gave Brigham Young university its second victory in a row over California Aggies here last night, 33-32.

Feder Gathers Smoke From New York's Hot-Stovers

NEW YORK. (AP)—Cooling off with the hot stovers: Here and there said the Giants were looking ahead when they named Travis Jackson manager of their New Jersey City farm. Some say "Jax" will be getting ready there to take over Bill Terry's pilot job with the "Jints" in a couple of years. Lending some support to this are two reports going the rounds: (1) That Terry is slated for a front office position, and (2) that he'd like to go back to being plain Colonel Bill of Memphis.

Headline: "Bob Feller (who is 18) to ask $20,000 from Indians for '37." The cover goes on this typewriter right now, while we learn how to throw a ball fast.

Last year, Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics were harshly called the American league's "bush leaguers." Believe it or not, the A's grapefruit league schedule of 15 games this spring calls for only minor league competition, except for a few tilts with the lowly St. Louis Browns and the hapless Phillies. Incidentally, the Yankees, who won the American league pennant, and the A's who were you know on the other end, are among the few outfits "standing pat" for '37.

Dizzy the Great said a few weeks ago he wanted $100,000 for this season. Now he threatens to quit baseball and become a pro golfer if he doesn't get $25,000. With an imagination like that he ought to try the crystal gazing business.

All looks serene in Cincinnati. Gene Schott and Kiki Cuyler already have signed up. It's surprising all clubs waived on Pitcher Lee Stine, who goes back to the American association, this time with Kansas City.

Could it be the Red Sox are looking westward for another heavyweight outfielder? Someone

Trotters Will Race Through Record Year

(Note: This is fifth of a series of stories written for the Associated Press by outstanding sports leaders. They deal with 1936 developments and 1937 prospects.)

By E. ROLAND HARRIMAN
Chairman, Trotting Horse Club of America

NEW YORK. (AP)—With as much cause for rejoicing as the American light harness turf has in looking back at 1936, its best season in 10 years, the eyes of the racing world are turned confidently ahead to 1937 which bears every promise of exceeding the past season in number of race meetings, value of purses, development of amateur matinee driving clubs for both men and women, and new, richer stakes for all-aged horses.

Registering gains of 25 percent in purses throughout the country, an expanded grand circuit schedule over 1935, increases in attendance at race meetings, and greater participation in the sport by amateurs than ever before, the last season has become history.

The last season saw speed marks, long guarded, fall before the onslaught of such champions as Rosalind, Greyhound, Twilight Song, Dusty Hanover, Little Pat, Ed Lasater, Edna Brewer, Calumet Evelyn and Margaret Castleton. While all of these and other leaders in their classes will be back in 1937 to better their own marks, a new school of talent is rapidly rounding into shape to challenge the old campaigners.

The new year, filling a long sought and now realized need, will provide ample facilities for racing trotters and pacers from one end of the country to the other. With more days of racing, richer purses, greater variety of stakes, and amateurs building up formidable schedules among themselves, 1937 will have to look sharp to its laurels with 1937 stepping out for top honors.

"Old Fox" Clark Griffith may find a complaint from Buck (Beau Brummell) Newsum in the mails about the 1937 salary offer, but Buck'll be on hand when spring training opens just the same.

Buddy Myers, disappointment No. 1 of '36, is already on the way South, and his contract, sealed, signed and delivered, is in Griffith's Washington safe.

Jury Decides Girl Suicide

Officially stamped as a suicide is the death of Tsuyako Kahiro, 22-year-old Japanese widow of a few months, who Tuesday night threw herself under the wheels of a speeding Pacific Electric car at Cypress.

A coroner's jury returned a suicide verdict at an inquest held yesterday afternoon in Anaheim after hearing testimony that the girl, grief-stricken since the death of her husband last October, had been despondent and that she ran from behind a clump of bushes to leap to the tracks just as the car approached.

CITRUS MEN PLAN VIGIL ON FROST

Scattered Heating of County Orchards Is Reported

Citrus growers of Orange county prepared to keep an all-night vigil again tonight after a cold wave, which caused scattered firing of orchard heaters last night, threatened to continue.

Two influences kept temperatures in the citrus areas of the county higher last night and earlier this morning than was expected, according to Agricultural Commissioner D. W. Tubbs. These were an early evening rain and an early morning breeze.

Firing of orchard heaters in the county last night and this morning was not general. Lowest temperature was reported in the lemon district of La Habra, where the mercury in glass thermometers dropped to the 26-degree mark at 4 a. m. Firing was more general in that section than in others, Tubbs said.

In the Tustin-Santa Ana citrus area, the temperature dropped close to 26 degrees around 6 a. m., late enough so that only scattered firing was necessary. The Placentia and Yorba Linda areas experienced little trouble and it was not necessary to fire heaters despite the fact that temperatures in some spots in Placentia dropped to 27 degrees. At Yorba Linda the lowest temperature was 32 degrees.

In the Orange district the lowest temperature ranged between 28 and 29 degrees and no firing was resorted to. It was warmer in the Anaheim district and there was no firing in the Garden Grove district, where temperatures recorded were between 30 and 32 degrees. In the Irvine and San Joaquin areas the lowest point was 30 degrees, with no firing.

SEEK REPEAL OF U. S. TAX ON 'GAS'

OKLAHOMA CITY. (AP)—Repeal of the one-cent federal tax on gasoline is the chief of a four-point program which the Independent Petroleum Association of America will present to congress during the coming session.

The announcement was made by Russell B. Brown, Washington, general counselor, who added that continuation of the federal "hot oil" law, the excise tax on oil imports, and renewal of the interstate oil compact law are other legislative objectives.

"Gasoline is cheap, only the tax is high," B. H. Markham, New York, told the 1000 delegate to the convention. He said the high taxes caused consumers to blame the industry for high gasoline prices.

He said the industry was forced to pay 201 different taxes, which in 1935 "exceeded one billion dollars."

BABY BORN TO DYING MOTHER

OAKLAND. (AP)—Surgeons saved an unborn baby today after the 19-year-old mother was fatally shot, police said, by her estranged husband, Ray Randall, 21.

The dying expectant mother, Mrs. Elsie Randall, was taken from her home to the Alameda county hospital, where the Caesarean delivery of a seven-pound son was accomplished.

A few minutes after the delivery Mrs. Randall died from a bullet wound in the left temple.

Chief of Police Bodie Wainman said Miss Amelia Hornhaus, 65, her aunt, who was shot through the jaw, reported that Randall fired the bullets after his estranged wife refused his offer of reconciliation. The shooting occurred in an apartment occupied by the two women.

PLAN CHECK ON TRAILER USE

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The city council has moved to restrict persons in setting up housekeeping in automobile trailers.

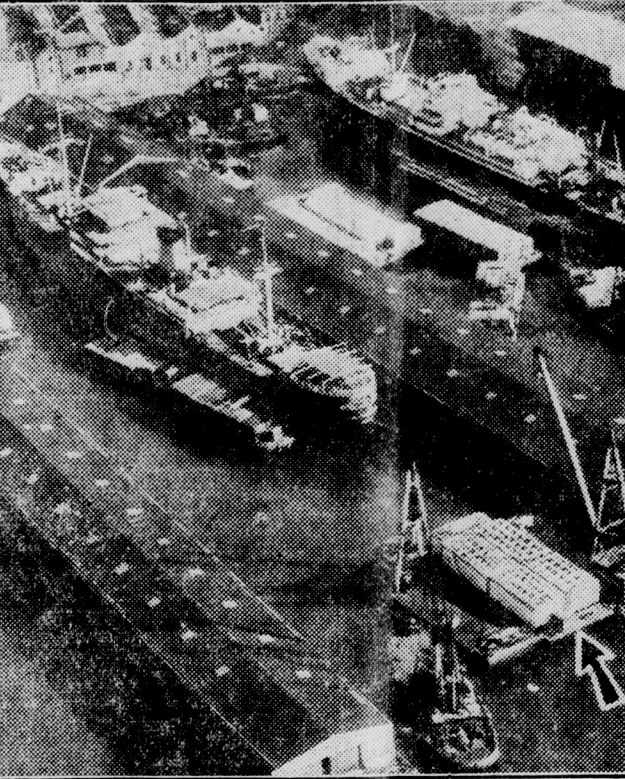

On recommendation of its public welfare committee, the council ordered preparation of an ordinance which would prohibit persons using house trailers as residences on public beaches, streets or land within the city.

Such use of the trailers would also be limited on vacant private property. The ordinance would confine use of the mobile houses to camps adequately equipped with sanitary facilities.

BOY DEFIES NEEDLES
For a few pennies, Umfano Malooli, a native boy living near Harburg, South Africa, will let anyone puncture his flesh with needles. Holes do not bleed, but scratches and cuts do. He pierces his nostrils and ear lobes and says it does not hurt.

Floods in Brazil recently compelled 100,000 people to abandon their homes.

Plane Shipment Beats Embargo

The Spanish freighter Mar Cantabrico, shown at its Brooklyn pier, barely beat the U. S. arms embargo with a cargo of war supplies for Spain. The ship was stopped outside New York harbor, then allowed to proceed. It carried nearly $5,000,000 worth of supplies.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK. (AP)—Buyers again were out in force during today's stock market session, and prices were lifted fractions to 3 or more points over an exceptionally broad front. Wall Street gave a favorable reception to the President's budget message. The recommendation for expansion of the army and navy continued aircraft, steel, shipbuilding issues and many others.

Grasshopper PLAGUE IS FEARED

CHICAGO. (AP)—An inch or two under the ground across the vast expanse of the farm belt there lies dormant today the threat of another grasshopper horde which may plague farmers this summer.

How many billions of eggs deposited in the ground last fall will hatch depends, entomologists declare, upon the weather in May and June. If it is cool and wet many of the eggs will not hatch, but if it is warm and dry hatching conditions will be ideal.

Extremely cold winter weather apparently does not affect the eggs. Dr. Carl J. Drake, Iowa state entomologist, said that although Iowa's last winter was one of the coldest in history, grasshopper infestation was not diminished in any way.

State entomologists have urged congress to appropriate $5,000,000 annually as a constant fund for poison to kill off the pests.

REALTOR DIES AS THIEF IN GUN FIGHT

PASADENA. (AP)—The strange case of Harry Linton Butler, ostensibly a respectable real estate broker, and of Harry Linton Butler, suspected bank robber, was ended today.

"I am glad he was killed," said his 80-year-old widowed mother, Mrs. S. B. Sullivan. "I would rather see him dead than behind prison bars."

Butler, a former president of the Pasadena Realty board, was shot to death yesterday when he drew a revolver from his pocket. Detective Robert O'Rourke reported, as officers approached him at the entrance of a branch of the Bank of America.

O'Rourke said Butler's fingerprints tallied with those a

PRAYER WEEK SERIES ENDS TONIGHT

Seven Ministers Will Occupy Pulpits of
Other Churches

Tonight will see the final rally of the Santa Ana Ministerial association in its "Week of Prayer," launched Monday to bring about a community of religious spirit and an intermingling of denominations.

The week's topic has been "Lord, Teach Us to Pray," and each night has seen the exchange of pulpits by the city's ministers, preaching on some phase of that subject.

The topic tonight is "The Place of Prayer in Spiritual Growth," and it will be preached by the Rev. Samuel Edgar of the Reformed Presbyterian church at the Evangelical church; the Rev. David M. Sayers of the Orange Avenue Christian church at the First Methodist church; the Rev. E. E. Johnson of the United Brethren church at the Nazarene church; the Rev. Walter Scott Buchanan of the First Christian church at the United Brethren church; the Rev. O. Scott McFarland of the First Presbyterian church at the Church of the Brethren; the Rev. Herman B. Landis of the Church of the Brethren at the Orange Avenue Christian church, and the Rev. E. A. Archer of the Free Methodist church at the Reformed Presbyterian church.

LYON GETS PAIN IN NECK Bucks Snow for Last Meeting

Townsend News, Views

By WALTER R. ROBB

(This is a non-political, non-partisan column, dealing in Townsend news and views, and written by a prominent Townsend leader. Any opinions which are expressed herein are not necessarily those of The Journal.)

Tustin Townsend club membership enjoyed a pot-luck dinner at 6:30 last Monday evening in the social hall of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Eunice Flattery and Mrs. M. D. Cawthon were in charge of dinner arrangements. At 7:30 John W. Sauer called the group together in a business session. A musical program included three vocal selections by G. Harbottle, with Miss Audrey Pieper at the piano.

In the semi-annual election of club officers which followed John W. Sauer was re-elected president. D. L. Thomas was selected for vice president, Mrs. Grace Benjamin, secretary, and Dell Benton was made treasurer.

Trustees appointed by various Santa Ana clubs for the purpose of considering two propositions submitted by Santa Ana club No. 3 relative to the financing of Townsend hall are to meet at 7:30 tomorrow evening in the hall at 509 West Fourth street. They will give reports concerning the action of their respective clubs in the matter. This meeting was decided upon at the last meeting of the group on Dec. 26. Grant Henderson will preside.

Anaheim club had the Rev. Joe M. Nation of Long Beach as its speaker last Monday. The meeting was held in the Townsend club building at 210 South Clematis street. Mrs. Ida A. Freeman presided. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Swift accompanied Rev. Nation to the meeting. Mrs. Swift is a sister of Harry L. Bras, a citizen maxim of the Townsend movement and editor of the Centralia, Wash., Chronicle. She is also chair leader of the Trinity Baptist church of Long Beach of which the Rev. Nation is pastor. But there is more of interest to this story. Mr. Swift was the first president of Townsend club No. 1 of Long Beach, which was the first Townsend club organized in the United States.

Mrs. Ida Freeman and Swift first became acquainted more than 50 years ago in Sandborn county, South Dakota, when they were very young. Later Swift as a young man moved to Arizona, he returned to South Dakota and homesteaded near Belle Fourche. Dr. Francis E. Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were also homesteading there at that time, which was in 1907. Later each of the three families at different times came to California. The Townsend and Swift families taking up residence in Long Beach, and the Freemans in Anaheim. Through the Townsend movement the old acquaintanceship has been renewed.

Santa Ana clubs Nos. 8 and 10 held a joint meeting in the Lincoln school on French street last Tuesday evening. The first part of the meeting was used by club No. 8 in conducting its semi-annual election of officers. J. H. Nicholson was elected president; Jacob C. Best, vice president; E. A. Bell, secretary, and Mrs. J. C. Best, treasurer. The club also elected W. J. Pickering, J. H. Nicholson and Jacob C. Best as regular delegates to the district convention to be held in Riverside on Jan. 23. Each of the delegates' wives were elected as alternate delegates. Club No. 10 had held its election at the previous week's meeting.

After club No. 8 had completed its election a joint installation service of the two clubs' newly elected officers was conducted by J. A. Holmberg. A group of young folks entertained with musical and reading numbers. Herbert F. Ken-neroy Lyon's last meeting as a supervisor gave him a pain in the region of his neck.

Not because of retiring in favor of Harry D. Riley, who defeated him at the November election, but because he had to tramp twice through deep snow at Lake Arrowhead to attend the meeting, and caught a cold.

Lyon, it seems, had taken his family to the mountain resort at Christmas time, and got snow-bound. And before everything was cleared up, he and the family had some harrowing experiences.

Lyon had to walk two miles through more than two feet of snow to get a car and leave the resort to attend the supervisors meeting Dec. 29.

Then came along another storm and two more feet of snow. Telephone lines were down; electric power was cut off in the mountains, and the supervisor got worried about his family.

He tried two days to get back to Lake Arrowhead, finally getting to Arrowhead Highland with the aid of the state highway department and two traffic officers. It took him a half day to trudge the remaining nine miles with 20 pounds of food.

So now he's staying home, nursing a cold.

"I guess a trip like that's a little too much for a young fellow like me," he commented.

THORN
FLESH

By G. L. THORNE

See lots of ads and store window displays dealing with foundation garments and figure control.

I don't know much about figure control. Wish I did, as I'd like to be able to control my check stubs a little better.

I don't know much about foundation garments either, except they are the clothes that are put on first.

But the whole business got me wondering about the foundation garments of our minds. Peeves, grouches, hatred, grievances, selfishness, etc. make a poor foundation if we are to attempt to clothe ourselves with charm and grace. After all, a person is only as beautiful as his disposition.

So get yourself some of those pink, purple or red things known as foundation garments if you choose, but don't expect them to "make" you. What is more important, remember the foundation garments of your mind and heart. Don't think I'd get "Red" ones in that line, however.

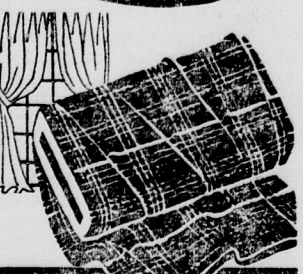

J. C. PENNEY FAIR TO BE JAN. 15

Sponsored by Los Gauchos, men's club at Santa Ana Junior college, the third annual Penny Fair is to be staged Friday, Jan. 15, in the National Guard armory. Tickets already have been placed on sale for the event by members of the various college service clubs, and the profits from the affair are to be used in additional furnishings for the men's and women's lounges on the campus. A prize is given each year to the club displaying the most attractive exhibit, and another award is given to the organization showing the most profit from the evening's event.

A THERMORAY GAS HEATER—

The hottest heater ever made—gives out more heat at less gas consumption than any heater on the market today. This is attained with the patented "Thermoray Burner Principle," which employs separate burners for each radiant, each burner carrying its own individual valve, mixer and refractory radiant.

This makes each burner unit a separate heater, to be turned on and used individually or collectively as the temperature requirement demands... break down the cold in your room with all burners in use, then turn out one or more burners and burn the one or more others to keep the temperature at correct level. PENSIONERS TO PETITION

DENVER. (P)—Old age pension advocates representing eight organizations claiming 750,000 members worked here today to effect a "united front" and draft a new proposal to congress.

"We have not definitely determined what pension will be sought," said O. Otto Moore, who led the successful drive for adoption by popular vote for a Colorado constitutional amendment providing $45 pensions.

"Our request definitely will not exceed the $60 a month suggested by Senator Borah of Idaho."

The high hopping pests are needed for scenes showing the devastating effect of a grasshopper plague in China.

PROGRAM FOR FARMER IS OUTLINED

Wallace Plans Include Farm Organization, Export Markets

WASHINGTON. (P)—Secretary Wallace outlined today a 10-point program for keeping America's 30,000,000 farmers on a par with business and industry.

Agriculture is no longer the forgotten industry of the United States," he said, citing a four-year rise in estimated farm income from $5,500,000,000 to $9,000,000,000.

The farmer's income has returned to its pre-war parity with urban incomes, Wallace said, declaring he will seek to maintain that relationship.

Program Told

His program:

1. Free opportunity for farmers to organize.
2. Fair and stable income for the farmer, on an equal with city incomes.
3. Supplies of farm goods adjusted to adequate home needs and foreign demand.
4. Foreign policies to encourage peace with other countries and an expanding market abroad for American farm products.
5. Conservation of the soil and other natural resources.
6. Turning below standard land to non-farm uses.

Two Dangers

7. Crop insurance, to cushion the shock of drought, flood, frost and plague, combined with the ever normal granary.

8. Better opportunities for the man with the hoe to own his land, and increased security for tenants and owner-operators.

9. A higher standard of living for the poorer farmers.

10. Industrial policies to insure abundance for wage earners and farmers alike.

Only two dangers threaten the farmer's future, farm experts said—a European war or another drought. Drought again would strain credit and relief sources in some regions, they predicted.

A plan for the government to insure farm crops is on the President's desk. The insurance would start only in wheat in 1938, but administration leaders say congress may include cotton and corn.

MODERN MOVIES 'ANALGESIC'

NEW YORK. (P)—Present day movies have principally a "Moonlight and Roses" theme, and avoid anything that has social significance, Howard S. Cullman, trustee of the Roxy theater, said here today.

Producers, with a billion-dollar investment to protect, must not consider "serious purpose," but must follow established lines, he charged.

"Romanticism has proved a sound policy," he said in an address at New York university, "and the movies stand self-convinced of being an analgesic to the social conscience and potential unrest of the masses."

BRITISH MOVIE IS BOMBARDED

LONDON. (P)—Appointment of a receiver for three independent film producing companies was disclosed today as critics continued their barrage against the British motion picture industry, which, it was declared, lost $10,000,000 last year.

Newspaper critics blamed "fantastic salaries," British attempts to turn out "colossal masterpieces," and efforts to compete with Hollywood in world markets for the present condition of the industry. Suggestions have been made that the government appoint a supervisory commission in an attempt to restore order.

Uphold Conviction Of Wife-Killer

LOS ANGELES. (P)—Conviction of Samuel T. Whittaker on charges of murdering his wife in a pseudo-holdup last March has been upheld by the district court of appeal. An elderly retired organist, Whittaker was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Little Girl Lost All Night Found

DAYTON, O. (P)—Police headquarters reported today that 4½-year-old Barbara Ruth Isble, object of an all-night hunt, had been found unharmed.

Details were not immediately available at police headquarters, but officers said they understood a man had been taken into custody.

Half Way Club Gets Member

SAN FRANCISCO. (P)—The "Half Way Club" of Golden Gate bridge workers saved from death by the safety net which hangs underneath today greeted the 11th member, Peter Patterson, 34, a riveter, who fell into the net from the center span yesterday.

The highest part in harmonized music is the treble.

Stork Service Undergoes Revision by Scientist

LOS ANGELES. (P)—The much-used service advising whether the stork is bringing a boy or a girl may sometime be replaced by another service on what sex the baby must be.

Dr. Richard B. Goldschmidt, outstanding authority in research of sex determination, reported progress today. New steps have been made, he said, in the march of science to the time when man can determine at will whether his children shall be boys or girls.

The latest advance, he reported, is the finding that one substance, one was thought to be in males sex. Previously, he said, it had been felt there were three sex-determining stuffs or substances. One was thought to be in the gene, another in the embryonic stage and the third in the stage of puberty, the adult stage.

Defines It

"I am satisfied that recent experiments prove not only the similarity of the stuffs, but that they are identical in the embryonic and adult stages," he said. "The blood-stream reveals in the embryonic stage a low concentration, with a heavier concentration. After puberty, hence the difference is only quantitative."

BRAIN AS WHOLE GOVERNS HUMAN'S INTELLIGENCE

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (P)—The seat of intelligence was traced to the human brain, rather than to any part, in a new kind of man brain studies reported by Dr. Harold M. Hildreth of Syracuse university to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Animal brains have indicated that intelligence is probably generally distributed, and that one part of the brain can sometimes take over the job of another part, but this has not been heretofore proved for humans.

Furthermore, it is known that sight, control of muscular movements, musical ability and some other talents are located in special areas of the human brain and destroyed if these areas are destroyed.

Experimental Surgery

"Different parts of animals' brains have been cut out," said Dr. Hildreth, "to see the effect of the loss of that particular part of the brain."

"Obviously we can't use experimental surgery on human beings. But we can study individuals on whom nature has operated; that is, individuals whose brains have been partially destroyed by disease."

EDWARD, ROOSEVELT TIE IN JAYSEE NEWS YARN POLL

What makes the best news story—love or politics?

Santa Ana Junior college journalism students were unable to decide that problem yesterday as they cast 36 votes each for the abdication of King Edward VIII and the re-election of President Franklin D. Roosevelt in making their selections of the 10 best news stories of 1936. The news survey is conducted at the college each year by the department of journalism.

Second place in the news poll was given the Spanish revolution, closely followed by Italy's conquest of Ethiopia, and the maritime strike.

Remaining choices of the best news stories of the past 12 months were rated as follows in the order named: Death of King George V, election of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, the eastern flood disaster, 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin, Orange county citrus strike, and payment of the soldiers' bonus.

Aside from the citrus strike, other stories rated by the students as high in local interest included the opening of the new San Francisco-Oakland bridge, observance of Santa Ana's fiftieth anniversary.

FEED CONTROLS EGG OUTPUT

BERKELEY. — A major influence in controlling poultry and egg production in the United States until early in 1938 is the present feed situation, it is stated in the 1937 agricultural outlook of the agricultural extension service, University of California.

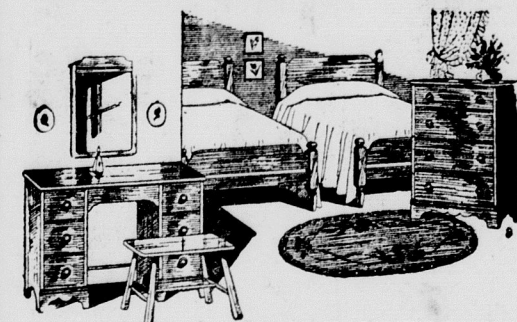

Numbers of chickens on farms are expected to be only slightly greater on Jan. 1, 1937, than a year earlier because of this situation. On account of the unfavorable egg feed price ratio which will probably prevail during the winter, it is not likely that production will be greatly different from that in 1935-36. In the last half of 1937, if the new feed crops show normal production, a more favorable egg feed price ratio will tend to raise the rate of laying above that of the last half of 1936.

The male of the Kurtus fish of New Guinea fastens eggs to a special bony hook on top of his head and carries them until they hatch.

PLAN VAUDEVILLE, DANCE, CARD PARTY FOR PRESIDENT'S BALL

TICKET SALE WILL START ON MONDAY

Chairmen of Committees,
Officers Are Named
at Initial Meet

President Roosevelt's Birthday Ball here the night of Jan. 30 will be the most brilliant social event of the year.

There was no doubt of that today after officers and members of the executive committee met late yesterday and formulated plans for a three-star program which will feature a scintillating ball at the Masonic Temple, an entertaining card party at the Ebell club and a sparkling professional vaudeville program in the auditorium of the Ebell club.

Tickets 50 Cents

All three events will take place the same night. Tickets, which go on sale Monday, will cost 50 cents per person, and will entitle holders to attend any one of the three programs. During the dance intermission, a program of vaudeville entertainment will be given.

Seventeen members of the executive committee and officers attended the meeting yesterday, called by Postmaster Frank R. Harwood, general chairman. Harwood announced appointment of B. Z. McKinney and E. M. Sundquist as vice chairman, and Mrs. M. E. Geeting as secretary. Harry Hanson was named treasurer.

An advisory committee named will include Horace C. Head as chairman, Mrs. E. B. Trago, Mayor Fred C. Rowland, Mrs. Gladys Simpson Shafer and Supervisor Steele Finley.

Committee Heads

Joseph A. Peterson was named chairman of the ticket committee; Elaine Williams, decorations; J. Wayne Harrison, dance; Mrs. Claudia Worswick, card party; and Ernest L. Spencer, Kenneth Adams, Paul Vissman, Robert Ramsey and A. B. Berry, publicity.

As in previous years, 70 per cent of the proceeds from the three events will be used locally to aid in treating victims of infantile paralysis, and 30 per cent will go to the Warm Springs Foundation, Warm Springs, Ga., the infantile paralysis institute sponsored by President Roosevelt.

Long Beach Has Second Most Cars In United States

NEW YORK (AP)—Miami, Fla., with one motor vehicle for every 2.6 residents leads the country, the Automobile Club of New York said today following a survey.

Long Beach, Calif., is second with a vehicle for every 2.9 persons and Los Angeles is third at a ratio of 3.2. New York has only one vehicle for every 12.1.

In cities of more than 100,000 population the survey showed, there is one vehicle for every 6.1 persons as compared with one vehicle for every 4.86 persons for the nation as a whole.

SUES FOR TITLE

Mrs. Hazel Fugate of Imperial county today petitioned in superior court for title to three parcels of property near Anaheim which she and her late husband, Z. T. Fugate, held jointly. Fugate was killed on an Arizona construction project Aug. 30.

I COVER THE CAPITOL By SENATOR HARRY C. WESTOVER

The following is one of a series of weekly articles written by Orange county's senator, Harry C. Westover, covering activities of the state legislature at Sacramento which are of pertinent interest to the voters and taxpayers of Orange county.

For some time past it has been my opinion that the representatives of congress and the state legislature do not keep in as close contact with their constituents as possible. Many times there is a willingness on the part of those elected to office to keep in contact with the voters "back home," but many do not have the facilities to establish a closer contact.

Feeling that it would be desirable to inform the voters of Orange county during the present session of the legislature of the things which are happening in Sacramento that are of particular importance to the residents of this county, I have decided to write to the various papers in the county a weekly letter, which letter will be released for publication Friday of each week commenting upon the happenings in the capitol which may be of interest to the residents of Orange county. It is not my intention to comment at length upon matters carried by the press associations, but only upon those things which are of local interest.

Orange county is well represented in the state senate at this session. In addition to the state senator from the 35th district, two other Orange county residents are a part of the official family. Joe Beck of Balboa was reelected secretary of the senate. This is one of the most important jobs in the senate, for upon Joe's shoulders rests the responsibility of a well-functioning organization. Joe has been the secretary of the senate since 1915, and he has seen many senators come and go during his regime.

Behind the desk and as an assistant to Joe Beck at the present time is another Orange county resident, Chester I. Dale, of Santa Ana.

Clyde Watson and Tommy Kuchel are members of the assembly. The assembly this year has a Democratic majority, and Republican heads fell right and left upon the organization of the assembly. Bill Hart and Justus Craemer of Orange witnessed the massacre. The Republicans saved one office in the assembly. The Democrats, with a gesture of generosity, allowed the Republicans to name

JEROME, LYON CITY TO GET RAP FIRING OF TRIO TAXES ON UTILITY

Beach Revenues

Although both indicated they feel the changes were unwarranted, two former supervisors today were reserved in their comment on the "house-cleaning" effected by their successors on Monday.

The two new men, Steele Finley of Santa Ana and Harry D. Riley of Anaheim, aided by John Mitchell in the case of the purchasing agent, removed Highway Superintendent Nat H. Neff and appointed Arthur A. Beard; removed Welfare Director Byron Curry and appointed Jack W. Snow, and removed Purchasing Agent F. W. Slabaugh and appointed Eugene Feneelon.

"I guess you know how I feel," said W. C. Jerome, "but I don't think I should comment."

"I have always found them (the removed officials) to be honest, straight-forward, and sincere in their work. I never found them to be other than high-class public servants," said Leroy Lyon.

WESTERN RAIL TRAFFIC UP

CHICAGO (AP)—Chairman Hugh W. Siddall of the Western Passenger association says improvements in service boosted passenger revenue of Western railroads 21 per cent in 1936 as compared with 1935.

He attributed the gain to lower fares, faster schedules and better accommodations—including a 17 per cent increase in attention by a newspaper advertising plan carried out in 850 dailies and 6000 weeklies.

Siddall predicted 1937 revenue would advance 25 per cent over 1936, continuing the upward curve which began after the low point of 1933. A 2 per cent advance in 1934 started the swing, and a gain of 8.96 per cent followed in 1935.

Liberty League Gets Big Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Liberty League reported to congress today it received contributions of $441,380 last year, spent $518,123 and had to dip into a balance carried over from 1935 to make up the difference of $76,743.

After paying its bills, the league had a balance of $16,455 to start 1937.

Among the receipts was a $13,000 loan from A. Hamilton Rice, New York.

'Y' PREPARES FOR ANNUAL MEETING

Dinner, Program Jan. 19 to Provide Glimpse of Group's Work

A program of unusual interest is being planned for the annual meeting of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. on Jan. 19, it was announced today by General Secretary R. C. Smedley.

The annual event will be launched with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock, which will be open to both men and women. The meeting will give the public an opportunity to get a glimpse of the program of varied nature which the association carries on. Speaker of the evening will be Dr. George L. Cady of New York, noted preacher and lecturer, who will speak on the subject, "Two Oars in One Boat."

Smedley also announced that the "Y" is starting a new group of men in gymnasium work. Those who would like systematic exercise were urged to report at 5 p. m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Every Wednesday at 7 p. m. Smedley conducts a class in "Chairmanship and Public Speaking" for men and women at no charge. Each Tuesday evening, except Jan. 19 when the annual meeting is to be held, one of a series of special lectures by physicians for men on the general subject, "The Years After 40," is held. At the Jan. 12 meeting Dr. M. M. Hollingsworth will discuss "The Heart and Digestive System in Middle Age."

Friends Plan Surprise Party in Glendale for Former Santa Ana Resident

Nine Compose Luncheon Group

Coffee Table Given to Mrs. Harry Brough On Her Birthday

Mrs. Harry Brough, a former Santa Ana who moved to Glendale six months ago, was the honored guest at a delightful surprise party yesterday planned by Mrs. D. H. Betten of 1028 North Olive street and a group of other Santa Ana friends.

Leaving here in the morning, the friends took with them everything belonging to a tamale pie birthday luncheon, even to the beautiful birthday cake with candles for the dessert course.

Mrs. Brough had expected four of the group to come over for the day, and these original four added another table to make it a real celebration for the anniversary, taking with them a lovely coffee table as a birthday gift for their hostess.

Anticipating the spring months not so very far away, Mrs. Brough centered her lace-covered table with a bowl of fragrant narcissus blossoms.

Contract games followed the delicious luncheon, and Mrs. Don Andrews and Mrs. A. P. Trawick carried off the honors of the afternoon's play.

Mary Stoddard 'Simple Simon' Cites His Experiences of Year's Search for Knowledge

By MARY STODDARD
After a year's silence, we hear again from "Simple Simon." His views have changed materially during these 12 months and, rather than express my opinion immediately, I am going to wait for some of my old faithful correspondents to answer him. Here is the letter: Dear Miss Stoddard: Last New Year I wrote anent the growing proclivity in the feminine persuasion of predatory instincts, declaring my intent to absent myself from their haunts.

Now I can report that my precautions were eminently successful, in that I have seen more of society, both men and women, at close range, and enjoyed more vicarious fulfillment of latent desires without the customary risk than when mixing freely on equal terms.

This was done through public discourse wherein I advertised myself and took a profit from the listeners without seeming to do so, since no open charge was made upon the attendance. But I have a corner on my specialty so that all business induced accrues in some measure to me.

The interesting part of the experiment is that the more I controlled the possibility of contacts, the more avid the women became to gain my attentions. There were about 600 new feminine acquaintances out of 1000 attendees, and while I could not estimate the number who showed definite signs of interest I do know that 39 of the 47 I eased up to, took the bait as far as I was willing to release, and seven over-rode their own patience and waxed vulgar.

Even though this marks the fifth year of celibacy after many years of unsatisfactory marital satisfaction, I slipped in not one single case, although I have had the free run of 11 homes, with and without the husband's approval, and in five cases was provided with a room whenever required and a place in the home like a brother, and I studiously kept to that designation except for momentary tests to see what stuff

MEET GEORGE KROCK, RED AND WHITE GROCER

Another member of the Red and White organization is presented to Journal readers this evening. George W. Krock, 1139 West Fourth street, a charter member of the group, is the well-known grocer to many of the people of Santa Ana, but to more recent residents probably not so well known. He has been in the same location for twelve years, so he has his location well established in the minds of his customers.

George is a home-town boy and making good in a line which requires constant attention, and the most alert foresight in the ever changing business world. He is careful in his food selections, watchful in buying determinations, and all of this is so that he may better serve the trade.

This young business man attended the Santa Ana public schools. He has been here for 28 years. He has grown-up with the town, so to speak. So he just naturally falls into the business trend of Santa Ana and he has built up a fine food store business.

Krock operates all the departments which go to make up a modern market. His grocery stock is complete, including all of the staples and the delicacies. The meat department is stocked with the choicest cuts, and the vegetables carefully selected. These are served from a new air conditioned fruit and vegetable rack which Krock has recently installed, assuring fresh vegetables from his rack to your refrigerator.

Mr. Krock is assisted in the management of the store by Mrs. Krock and daughters, Justine and Phyllis, who are able to give very helpful suggestions to customers. There is not only prompt clerical attention, but the delivery service is also prompt.

Mr. Krock takes a personal interest not only in his own investment, but he gives willing attention to what his community is doing, and lends his assistance to make Santa Ana a better town to live in. What is good for Santa Ana is good for his business.

His long identification with the Red and White organization has given him a close identification with buying methods. He cooperates closely, and any accrued benefits he is able to pass to his trade. Mr. Krock will be pleased to make new friends. He will welcome you at his 1139 West Fourth street store, and appreciates his old ones. You will be glad to meet George Krock. Call on him and say hello, and leave an order.

ALBRIGHTS HOME FROM HOLIDAY TRIP NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Albright of 718 South Sycamore street have just returned from a delightful six-week visit in Berkeley with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Albright, and granddaughter, Barbara Jean.

They went north in time for the Thanksgiving celebration for which a few old-time friends were invited to join the family circle, and that same week they drove over the new San Francisco-Oakland bridge to meet cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra W. Albright of Toronto, Canada, who were on their way home from Japan.

The latter, who had spent nine months in the Orient with their son, a missionary in Tokyo, and his family, were visitors in Santa Ana last March, spending a few days here with the Jesse Albrights on their way to Japan.

The cousins spent a happy week-end together in Berkeley before the Ezra Albrights went on north.

The Christmas festivities and family reunion were held in the home of Mrs. Harold Albright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Brown, in Berkeley; and New Year's day occasioned another family gathering at the Harold Albright home.

The latter family are building a new home on one of the beautiful Berkeley hills overlooking San Francisco bay and the Golden Gate, expecting to occupy it the latter part of this month; and the Santa Anans enjoyed several tours of inspection while visiting in the city.

"IT MIGHT HAPPEN TO YOU"

For hours a sorely troubled Rufus Van Ault had awaited the home-coming of his daughter, Gloria. It was after midnight when the telephone finally rang. Over the wire came a voice telling him that his only child was in jail charged with murder.

There are many Van Ault families right here in Santa Ana. Rufus, the successful, busy man of the world; Gloria, the gadabout socialite with too many leisure moments and too much money. Sometimes life is smooth sailing for the Van Ault families. Other times tragedy tumbles their house of happiness topsy-turvy, as it did to Gloria and her father.

The story of Van Ault and his daughter has been taken out of real life and placed in the setting of an intensely interesting and unique stage play, which the Santa Ana Council of Parents and Teachers is bringing to the high school auditorium for three performances on Jan. 19 and 20.

"It Might Happen to You" is not a motion picture. The players are real actresses and actors—the same who appeared in the play during its long successful run in Los Angeles. The play from the rise of the first curtain to the final scene is a delightful blending of humor, pathos and thrilling situations.

Regular Outlays Exceed Emergency Costs in Past 12 Months

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The treasury reported today a major shift in the relative size of government expenditures between its classifications of "regular" and "emergency" activities during the last fiscal year.

The department's annual report showed that for every $1 paid out for "recovery and relief" in the 12 months ending June 30, $1.92 was spent on "normal" government operations.

In the previous year, $1.08 went for emergency activities for each $1 going to general departments, while in 1933-34 emergency spending overbalanced regular outlays in the ratio of $1.55 to $1.

Emergency Less
Citing a $366,300,000 climb in regular expenditures to $3,276,900,000 last year, the treasury attributed this in part to heavier national defense outlays, increased personnel in civil departments and agencies and restoration of a 5 per cent salary cut to government workers.

While these expenditures were climbing, the report said, emergency spending declined $293,900,000 to $2,776,800,000, the net figure after deductions and earnings and repayments of various agencies.

Aggregate expenditures were set at $5,077,650,000 during the year, of which 56 per cent went for regular activities, 31 per cent for recovery and relief, 8 per cent for interest and 5 per cent for debt retirement.

Receipts Rise
On the revenue side, total receipts rose $315,500,000 last year to $4,116,000,000.

Miscellaneous internal revenue levies accounted for 49 per cent of this. Income taxes provided 35 per cent.

Rising $5,077,650,000 during the year, the public debt stood at $33,778,543,000 on June 30. The rise was due in part to the bonus payment and an $840,000,000 increase in the general fund balance of available cash.

TRUCK DRIVERS INITIATE 11

Eleven new members of the Chauffeurs, Truck Drivers and Helpers union were initiated at a meeting held last night in the Labor Temple.

A. H. Bauer was appointed business agent for Orange county. He will receive applications for joining the union at 329 Halesworth. He announced that four different truck companies of the county now are 100 per cent union.

Meetings in the future will be held on the first Thursday of each month. Members of the union are so busy because of the maritime strike that meetings twice a month will not be held until after the strike is settled, Bauer said.

PHILIPPINE TAX IN BIG GAIN

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt estimated today in his annual budget message to congress that collections from the Philippine coconut oil tax in the fiscal year beginning July 1 would total $21,200,000, compared with an estimated $20,100,000 in the current year.

Actual collections from the 1934 levy of 3 cents a pound on oil of Philippine origin were put at $15,960,228.61 for the 1936 fiscal year ended last July 30.

The tax proceeds, totaling over $40,000,000 at the end of the 1936 calendar year, are earmarked for eventual return to the Philippines, but have been impounded by litigation.

STREETCAR IN BRIDGE CRASH

SEATTLE, (AP)—A heavily laden municipal street car plunged 30 feet off the West Spokane street trestle at the height of the early traffic peak today.

Providence hospital reported a man tentatively listed as Leo Bow, city fireman, was dead when brought from the scene.

Captain Dismissed From U. S. Army

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt today approved a court martial sentence dismissing Capt. Ralph E. Fleischer, of the quarter-master corps, from the army.

Fleischer was tried while on duty at Fort Slocum, New York, on charges of violating the 93rd, 95th and 96th articles of war involving alleged misappropriation of army property and of conduct unbecoming an officer.

The University of Missouri has won 20 games, tied 4 and lost 11 to Washington university of St. Louis in the last 46 years.

British Girl Slain in China

PEIPING, China, (AP)—The mutilated body of Pamela Werner, 17-year-old daughter of a British resident of Peiping, was found today in a ditch near the southern edge of the foreign settlement.

The father, E. T. C. Werner, formerly a British consular officer and a noted student of China, made the identification.

Police believed Miss Werner had been robbed and then slain. Her

Freight Loadings Show Increase

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Association of American Railroads reported today loadings of revenue freight for the week ending last Saturday totaled 587,953 cars.

This was an increase of 25,735 cars, or 4.6 per cent, compared with the preceding week, an increase of 46,741, or 8.5 per cent, compared with a year ago, and an increase of 90,679, or 18.2 per cent, compared with two years ago.

He told congress today that postoffice appropriations for the

Frail Baby Now 101 Years Old

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—Frail Mary Harris Steckter was informed, when she was 21, that she wouldn't live the average span of life, but she will observe her 101st birthday Jan. 18.

Mrs. Steckter, who lives here with her son, Sheriff J. P. Steckter, crossed the plains in a prairie wagon in 1853. She was born in Howard county, Missouri, in 1836.

WATERFORD, Calif. (AP)—A cat owned by Mrs. Ludwig Shima is 26 years old and has produced a litter of kittens ever year for the past 25. The exact number of the offspring is unknown.

Australia's population has doubled this century.

She credited her longevity to a hardy life in the open air.

OLD AND NEW METHODS IN SPAIN WAR

'Pitchfork to Machine Gun' Is Motif of Revolution

(Editor's note—With Europe waiting anxiously to know whether foreign intervention in the Spanish civil war will increase or abate, the strife spreads on the strength of modern armaments. It is a strange contrast of efficiency and futility, old and new, scientific and improvised.)

TALAVERA DE LA REINA, Spain. (AP)—Foreign military aid has created vivid contrasts in the manner and methods of fighting in Spain's civil war.

Steadily increasing equipment from abroad has modernized the warfare since the first hectic days before a hoped-for coup d'etat stretched out into a fairly large scale war.

New defensive strength imported from elsewhere in Europe appears frequently to nullify new offensive power obtained from similar sources.

Bottles of Fire
But the unusual still prevails—bombing planes of latest design blasting Madrid with high explosives while soldiers battle hand to hand in slimy sewers.

New anti-tank guns firing ineffectually at tough, new armored cars while bottles of gasoline hurled by Moors set them afire. . . . Anti-aircraft guns, working units and firing concurrently by electric control and planes still being shot down by rifle fire. . . . Original polish still brightening the rifles of front line soldiers while rear guard sentries carry old shotguns.

These contrasts only serve to intensify, however, the amazing developments of the war.

Air Inefficiency
From pitchfork to machine gun. . . from crude dynamite bomb to modern hand grenade. . . from artillery fire so poor one out of five shells exploded to cannonading accurate within inches. . . to far-flung maneuvers and military strategy. . . to air battles as extensive as those of the World war.

Militarists have noted the seeming inefficiency of the airplane, both to gain military objectives and to throw populations into panic. They do not deny the important role of aviation in the Fascist advance to Madrid, unopposed for the most part.

But they point out the failure of the insurgents' planes, despite vast amounts of explosives dropped, to blast away the capital's defenses.

Tanks, similarly, have failed. Anti-tank guns and the Moors' bottle grenades of gasoline, moreover, have frustrated mechanical attacks.

Car, Purse Stolen In Long Beach; Man Returns By Taxi

A Long Beach taxi driver and an apparently confused Santa Ana man appeared at the police station last night to get their troubles straightened out.

Not that the passenger didn't have the money to pay for a ride from Long Beach. He had too much money!

The taxi driver, A. J. Bickhaus, reported that his passenger, Norbert Gagnon, 1228 North Broadway, had only a $100 money order, which the driver couldn't change. Gagnon reported his car and purse had been stolen from him while he was in Long Beach, before he took the taxi ride home.

Finally somebody thought of looking around Gagnon's house for some spare change. Which they did. The driver was paid, and went away happy, promising to report theft of Gagnon's car and purse to Long Beach police.

Frost Warnings Continue Nightly Over KNX at 8

Assurance of adequate time for continuation of the nightly temperature forecasts by Floyd Young over radio station KNX has been received from the Columbia Broadcasting System, according to announcement from the California Fruit Growers exchange.

The frost warning will be given at the usual time of 8 o'clock every night except Sunday, when a flash announcement will be made at that hour, with complete report to follow at 9:45 p. m. For the six week nights, a full five-minute period is available, with additional time if emergency demands it. This arrangement is now definite for the balance of January at least.

Prison Guards to Have Clubhouse

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—In the near future the Folsom prison guards will be able to say to their friends, "Won't you come up to my club?"

Excavation work for a clubhouse building for the guards is in progress and John Whelan, secretary to Warden Clarence Larkins, said the building will be the first to be used as a clubhouse or recreational room for the guards since the prison was established in 1880.

Story of McFaddens' Feud With Southern Pacific in Early Days Here Is Retold

(Editor's Note: Federal Writers' project workers, under Ted N. Burrell, Orange county editor, are compiling an Orange county guide. From some of the older histories and documents many odd, interesting and previously unpublished facts are unearthed. Here is another in a series of such stories to be printed from time to time exclusively in The Journal.)

By TED N. BURRELL
The story of the feud between the McFadden brothers, early developers of Newport Bay, and the Southern Pacific railway is one of the major items of interest in a compilation of the early history of Orange county's famed harbor and beach resort. The McFaddens had aroused the ire of the transportation company as early as 1890. Old records of the county contain many interesting as well as amusing facts regarding this early day financial battle and events leading up to it.

The McFaddens first ran afoul of the Southern Pacific concern when they extended their local transportation facilities inland. By bringing freight from San Francisco by water the McFaddens were able to deliver it as far inland as San Bernardino at a cheaper rate than was offered by the railway. The McFaddens had a line known as the Santa Ana-Newport railway, running between those two points. Established primarily for freight, there was no charge made for passengers. However, the first agent for the line discovered that there was neither a desk nor chair in his office so he taxed passengers 25 cents a ride until he realized enough to equip his office.

Decide to Sell Out
A branch line was built to the town of Smeltzer, and the McFaddens built up considerable business from that point in handling celery shipments. Due to the controversy with the Southern Pacific the McFaddens would never willingly have done any business with that concern. However, after operating their rail lines for a period of about six years, the brothers decided to sell out in view of increasing overhead and maintenance costs.

In 1898, a Colonel W. H. Holabird, whom it later developed was acting for the Southern Pacific, maintained that he was acting as representative for J. R. Clark,

SOLON FIRES TO CONTINUE ON VERBAL KNX FROST WARNINGS

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Senator Henry Fountain Ashurst—long a student of the English language—advocated today that the nation forget some of the words cluttering up the dictionaries.

"We have a wonderful language," he said, "but it is becoming unwieldy. It would be a good thing to call a conference of authorities and abolish some of our verbal corpses."

The Arizona senator—recognized as packing one of the most remarkable vocabularies in congress has dipped into the national language and made some novel disclosures.

"Every 100 words spoken by an educated American," he said, "fall into four general classifications." They are: 60, Anglo-Saxon; 30, Latin; 5, Green; 5, other languages.

Two words for which Ashurst has no use are "very" and "quite." "Either of them tends to weaken, not strengthen your speech," he said.

"You will hear neither used in my office," he added, "for we have abolished them."

A casual visitor to the office sometimes is startled by efforts toward a more picturesque speech. For instance:

"Give me the ibex," said the senator to his secretary.

"The ibex" turned out to be Ashurst's speech on the donkey, and contained a good example of his colorful language: "The donkey is the personification of the sublime virtues of moderation, forbearance, restraint and rigid economy. From the vibrant chords of his throat there come zigzag bars of music as thrilling as the midnight minstrel of the nightingale. Incidentally, Ashurst is a Democrat."

'Dog' He Chased Was Bear Cub

MARLINTON, W. Va. (AP)—Five-year-old Robert Kellison gave chase when he saw what he thought was a half-grown puppy scampering through the Kellison cornfield.

The pup circled the field, and ran toward the Kellison home.

Mrs. Kellison saw that it was a bear cub.

TARKINGTON CALLS BOYS OF TODAY 'SAVAGES'

INDIANAPOLIS. (AP)—Today's little boys are "wise guys," Booth Tarkington, glorifier of the little boy of another generation, said today.

He didn't say it disparagingly. It's an environment that makes them that way, explained the 67-year-old kindly-faced author of "Penrod and Sam," youngsters of a generation that just antedated the automobile, moving pictures, the airplane and the radio.

"The movies and the radio bring to today's little boys scenes and

For the six week nights a full five-minute period is available with additional time if emergency demands it. This arrangement is now definite for the balance of the month of January at least.

With the switch of all Columbia programs to KNX a week ago there was some difficulty in arranging for sufficient time at 8 o'clock because of the continuous sponsored chain programs at that time of night, which is as early as the weather forecast can be prepared by Mr. Young.

"Citrus growers should know that Columbia and KNX officials fully appreciate the public service and economic value of this nightly broadcast to the citrus industry and to the state," said Paul S. Armstrong, general manager of the exchange. "They have done everything within their power to cooperate with us and with Young to give this important service the time on the air required and to keep the same hour to which growers have become accustomed."

"Columbia and KNX are doing this at considerable out-of-pocket cost to themselves and I am sure that their efforts are genuinely appreciated by everyone in the industry," Armstrong said.

Can't Turn Back On Bay Bridge

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Not the least task in finishing up the giant San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge was the installation of signs. It took 121 of them to direct motorists over the various approaches and insure their good behavior on the thoroughfare.

Conspicuous are those warning: "No U turn." Once started across the bridge, a driver is not allowed to change his mind and go back.

EXAMINATION FOR T. B. TO BE GIVEN

Huntington Beach School Children to Get Free Clinical Tests

Now that freshmen in Anaheim High school and sophomores in Santa Ana High school have been given tuberculin tests, preparations were being made today to make the tests in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades in Huntington Beach.

Mexican students in Santa Ana already have been given the tests, which are made under direction of Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer. Parents of children found to react positively to the tests can send them to private physicians, to the Orange County hospital or to the Orange County Tuberculosis association clinic.

Greater Protection
Last year the tuberculosis association handled more than 500 X-ray and clinical diagnosis cases, the county hospital more than 700. Funds raised through sale of Christmas Seals are used by the tuberculosis group for the work. Five per cent of the money is sent to national headquarters, the balance covering local needs of the association.

A statement released today by the association said that it is hoped that larger numbers of school children can be given protection from tuberculosis this year than were given in the past, but plans for the work cannot be finally completed until all Christmas Seal sale returns are in. The statement said:

Seal Payments
"Those who have not yet paid for their Christmas Seals received during the holiday season are urged to make their deferred payment soon, in order that the extent of the tuberculosis control programs to be carried on by the associations may be determined. "Those who received Christmas Seals and do not wish to purchase them this year are asked to return them to the tuberculosis association, in order that proper accounting may be made."

Books capture mussels and open them for eating by dropping them from a height.

Christmas Conquers Soviet

For the first time since the 1918 revolution, Muscovites were permitted to buy Christmas trees and trimmings this season, but they had to pay exorbitant prices. Here, a Moscow bazaar does a land-office business. (Associated Press Photo)

OLD LAW BANS AUTOMOBILES State Official Recalls It

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—State officials were recalling to Harry Lutgens, state director of institutions, and newspaper publisher of San Rafael, that his town one time had an ordinance requiring automobile drivers to stop 300 feet from an approaching horse. "Well," Lutgens replied, "match this."

"There is a Marin county ordinance on the books today which prohibits driving an automobile on what is now a state highway."

"The ordinance covers White's Hill, between San Rafael and Inverness, now a part of the Sir Francis Drake highway."

Martha Raye Is Carrying Torch

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Martha Raye, the clarion-voiced comedienne, is whispering a real love song these days. She's engaged—but not "formally"—to an assistant in a film studio music department. He is Jerry Hopper, cousin of Glenda Farrell, the actress, and he's given Martha a ring. The wedding date hasn't been set yet, she said.

MODERN ILLS VEXED OUR ANCESTORS

ATLANTIC CITY. (AP)—Five thousand years ago ancestors of today's European "Nordics" and "Mediterraneans," dwelling together in Persia, now Iran, had all the ills of their modern children, even to bad teeth.

This record of their bones, dug up at Tepe Hissar, in northeastern Iran, by a University of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania Museum of Art expedition, was given to the American Association for the Advancement of Science by Prof. W. H. Krogman of Western Reserve university.

Microscopic studies were made of 58 skeletons, covering 1500 years' history. They died in those days, said Professor Krogman, at an average age of about 29. More than half of them had bad teeth, though probably not so many as today.

More than a quarter of the adults had arthritis by the time they were old persons of 30. They suffered from tuberculosis, from varicose ulcers, bone marrow inflammation and bad diet.

Two sets of bones were found in jars which "look like" syphilis.

From their head shapes all were judged to be forerunners both of today's "Nordics" and "Mediterraneans," living in Europe. The "Nordics" appear to have come to live in Tepe Hissar at a later time than the "Mediterraneans," but both probably finally lived there together, Professor Krogman said. Both seem to have been pure white stock, unmixed with other bloods.

An unidentified ray, which travels from the sun with the speed of light, and makes earth's short wave radio stations for periods of a few minutes, was described by R. S. Richardson of the Mt. Wilson observatory of Carnegie institution.

The rays are a mystery, he said. They come from bright flashes of light, which appear occasionally on the sun's surface. The cause of the flames is unknown, but they are likely to show up not far from sun spots.

The fiery flashes act like super-powerful short wave radio broadcasting stations. Thirteen of the flashes, photographed in daylight in Mt. Wilson telescopes, have coincided with fade-outs of short wave stations.

The rays, Dr. Richardson said, are different from those coming from sunspots, which cause earth's magnetic storms, the periods when compasses and telegraph instruments fail to work.

The new "radio rays," however, have on four occasions caused slight disturbances in human instruments.

In a few cases the sun flashes have failed to disturb radios.

This said Dr. Richardson, indicates that the stratosphere warded them off, and that possibly the radio effects are due to interaction between the unknown rays and the stratosphere.

THREE-YEAR SEARCH FOR MILLIONS NETS $3.87

NEW YORK. (AP)—In quest of millions in sunken gold, Simon Lake, 70-year-old submarine inventor, trickled half a dozen rusty coins through his fingers today and brooded wryly on the "profits" of treasure hunting.

"Nickels," he murmured, "... That's all he's got to show, so far, on his three-year search for the wreck of the British Frigate Hussar, lying 13 fathoms deep in the swirling currents of Hellgate—at the bottom of New York's East river—where the ship sank in 1780.

Reputedly, the Hussar went down with $4,800,000 in gold and silver pieces.

In cold cash, Lake has retrieved $3.87. Lake is mystified about the coins. They're just fairly modern American species—the oldest being a 50-cent piece, dated 1914.

Under the heading of junk, Lake displayed a segment of false teeth, a cheap watch, a pair of brass knuckles, a stickpin and a badly eroded pearl handled jack-knife of dubious pearl.

For more than half a century, Lake watched a dozen or more expeditions try to locate the Hussar's golden cache. He determined then, that if they failed to find it, he would try it himself when he grew up.

Lake, who invented the level foot type of submarine, now used by every navy in the world, devised a special bottom searching submarine for his treasure quest—a jaw-like device with a staircase tube dropping down from the surface float into the submarine itself.

The Hussar, a full sized 28-gun frigate, was wrecked while fleeing with money for the redcoat army after the American revolutionary forces had driven British troops out of New York City.

Garden Secrets By Willis Cadwallader of Blanding Nurseries

"Teach us, sprite or bird, What Sweet thoughts are thine—"

—Shelley. No garden, large or small, is complete without the cheery songs of our feathered friends. To provide a bird sanctuary, it is necessary to furnish food and protection. The food may be secured naturally by planting berries or fruiting plants, or by placing it in feeding stations.

Any article can be constructed of the most meager materials at hand, or of the most elaborate material. Whatever the material used, it should be erected, because it is by the attracting of the birds that the garden is protected from insect enemies.

Bird baths, bird houses, and feeding stations may be so planned and located as to enter in as features of the garden. Bird baths are used as special objects of interest on the axis of walks or in niches in the shrubbery. In the construction of bird houses, it is necessary to keep in mind the bird that is to be housed, as different birds like different locations and different types of nests. These vary from the hollow tree to the outmost limbs of the limbs, and from high up in the highest peak to the very sand itself.

Providing for the Birds
There is no limit to the forms or shapes of bird baths, whether one is a saucer cut in a rock, or a saucer set up on a pedestal. It is well to provide a space for the bird to perch. The edge of the bird bath should not be more than one and one half inches deep, and it may gradually slope to a depth of four inches. The bottom of the bath should be covered with pebbles and always kept clean.

It is best to have a perch near the bath, such as a shrub or post, for the birds to rest on, as they may bathe many times.

In the construction of bird houses, each bird requires a certain type of building or arrangement peculiar to his own tastes, and requires a certain study in itself.

Little "Jenny Wren" is quite sociable, and is easily attracted to little houses. The phoebe builds her nest on beams, while the barn swallow builds under the eaves. The robin can be aided by placing clay within her reach if the surrounding country is sandy. The Baltimore oriole feels safer in her own well-built home far out of reach of possible trouble.

Certain types of birds build in the shrubbery borders, such as the sapsucker, flickers, bluebirds, red-headed, downy and hairy woodpeckers, owls and nut-hatchets.

Feeding stations should be placed so as to be protected from the winds. Vines may be planted around to give a naturalistic look. A coil of wire should be placed around the station on a support such as a tree or post, to keep the cats away.

Suet, minced raw meats, cracked corn, wheat, nut meats, squash seeds, rice and dry bread crumbs make especially attractive feeds for the birds.

The most important thing to remember is the planting of shrubs and trees that are attractive to the birds. Among these are box elder, maples, chokecherry, some of the oaks, mountain ash, American elm, juniper, spruce, pine, yew, arbutus, chokeberry, barberry, dogwood, California holly, cotoneaster, pyracantha, and many others.

Newport Girl to Get A. B. Degree At California U.
Miss Margaret Hoefner, a member of the first graduating class of the Newport Harbor Union High school, has received a certificate of completion of work at the University of California in Berkeley. The certificate states that Miss Hoefner has completed all required studies for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the college of letters and sciences, and that she will have her diploma and degree presented to her at the commencement exercises at the university in May. Miss Hoefner is the first graduate of the Newport Harbor Union High school to complete university requirements. She graduated from the Santa Ana Junior college with the degree of Associate in Arts.

At the Newport Harbor Union High school, Miss Hoefner was president of the Girls' Athletic association and a member of the Girls' League cabinet, and was one of three girls to receive gold pins for high standing in scholarship and extra-curricular activities. At Santa Ana Junior college she was a member of Las Maninas and of the Women's Athletic association board. At the University of California Miss Hoefner is a member of Phi Kappa Phi and was selected for the all-California hockey team.

She will return to Berkeley the latter part of January to do special graduate work in the department of education in preparation for her secondary credential. She has been spending the holiday vacation at her home on Newport Heights.

WALKERS CRASH FATAL
Believed to be the first case of its kind, a collision between two pedestrians in Chesham, England, has resulted in the death of Thomas Saunders, aged 86, from a fractured skull. The men ran into each other near Saunders' home. At the inquest a verdict of death by misadventure was returned.

Final count in the latest census shows Shanghai, China, has a population of 3,770,986.

Pretty Hands May Be Acquired

By JACQUELINE HUNT
Lovely hands across the table—at dining, or at bridge—are appealing and elegant. But they must be well-cared for. Hot water and kitchen soaps can be disastrous to soft white skin and long, shapely nails—so the first step is to keep an extra jar of hand cream or bottle of lotion beside the kitchen sink. Results will surprise you.

Once every day, give the hands a complete beauty treatment. Keep this up until the redness and roughness disappear and until the nails look strong and healthy again. After this, a treatment every two or three days should be often enough. Be sure to give your nails the lubricants they need. Either a cuticle oil, a nail lotion or the new ruby-colored brittle nail cream that has appeared recently is effective and should be worked into the nail base with a rotary motion.

Pinch the finger gently outward toward the tip between the opposite finger and thumb. You do not have to remove the polish to give your nails a treatment.

Now take a minute to massage the hands thoroughly with an oiler cream than the one you use after washing your hands. Work downward over the backs and well across the wrists where lines are apt to appear, then work downward along each finger toward the tip. Now reverse the direction and massage the fingers and hands with long, upward strokes as though you were drawing on a pair of kid gloves.

Creams do the most good when the skin has a chance to absorb them, so put light cotton gloves on for half an hour if you can spare that much time. If you must have the hand treatment during the day, put a pair of heavy gloves over the light gloves over the light gloves and go about your cleaning and dusting, while the cream does its work.

"Moderation" Should Be Resolution

By CLAUD N. CHRISMAN, M. D.
This holiday season has given me pause for reflection. How we do overdo at our American holiday meals, in particular.

Candy and nuts added to a Christmas or New Year's turkey dinner is adding insult to injury. We've already supplied all our needs for fats and proteins—and then we have an over-supply. And to think of fruit cake and plum pudding for dessert! They're difficult enough to digest when taken alone, but when they are used to top off a large meal of other rich foods, it is just too much to ask of an agreeable and trusting digestive tract.

Candy is sugar in concentrated form. Eaten in small amounts at the close of the meal it is agreeable and harmless. But when taken on an empty stomach it is often irritating to the mucous membrane, causing congestion. It may even be followed by extreme pain. It ferments, creating gas in the stomach. It destroys the appetite for other foods, but increases the desire for more candy.

Talk about table groaning with the weight of the food on it! We rise from these dinners with our stomachs and heads groaning with the simple weight of food we have consumed. If we only eat a little of each of the foods provided, we have usually eaten far too much. The good company, good cheer and forgetfulness tend to cause us to eat an inordinate quantity of all the tempting foods. Let us decide to be more reasonable, control our pride in setting a full table, and provide a meal containing enough good food, but not too much and leave off the trimmings. Eat, drink and be merry, but don't eat and drink too much and you will be much merrier.

PERUSÉ'S BIBLE 105 TIMES

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Henry B. Leh, 69-year-old resident of Egypt, Pa., says he has read the Bible 105 times since 1902.

He has worn out three Bibles and a fourth is frayed.

"When I went to school, I read a book that said the word 'and' was used 51,520 times in the Bible," he said. "I counted them and that's right."

He is in an Allentown hospital now, recovering from a broken leg and spending most of his time—reading the Bible.

Meadowlarks, Jays New Farm Enemies

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Meadowlarks and jays have replaced the linnets and horned larks as California's "prime crop enemies," Ira N. Gabrielson, chief of the biological survey, reported today by Secretary Wallace.

Noting that bird depredations on crops in California "have exceeded those in any other state in numbers of species of birds involved, crops attacked and damage done," Gabrielson said: "Meadowlarks, which severely damaged young watermelons in the southern part of the state, and jays, a chronic cause of local injury to poultry, almonds, walnuts and fruits, this year seem to have replaced the linnets (house finches) and horned larks as prime crop enemies."

Defies Auto Union

Alfred P. Sloan, Jr. (above), president of General Motors corporation, which was hit by a series of strikes by the United Automobile Workers union in numerous plants, announced that "no one union" would be recognized as the sole collective bargaining agency of his workers. (Associated Press Photo)

Fish Recipe Good For This Friday

By JUDITH WILSON

Did you entertain your bridge foursome today? Although it isn't obligatory, it's always nice to serve a fish entree on Fridays, just to be safe. Here is a salad that's delightful—it makes six portions, so there'll be enough for the children or your husband, too. For your luncheon serve it with a thick cream soup, hot rolls or biscuits, and a beverage. A dessert isn't necessary.

Avocado-Shrimp Salad
Cut one pound cooked shrimp or 1½ cups canned shrimp into small pieces and combine with two avocados, pared and diced into small cubes. Toss carefully together with ¼ cup mayonnaise into which one tablespoon cocktail sauce or catsup, two teaspoons horseradish, ¼ green pepper, finely minced, and the juice of ½ lemon have been blended. Serve in lettuce cups.

TEN-YEAR-OLD HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Darlene Holman's tenth birthday anniversary Wednesday was the occasion for a jolly little party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman, on West Seventeenth street, when a group of Darlene's young friends gathered for an afternoon of bingo and an amateur show.

At the end of the afternoon, ice cream and birthday cake with 10 candles were served at a pretty table, with chocolate bars in gay wrappings for the favors.

Guests participating in the celebration with Darlene were Joy Petersmeyer, Elaine Harlow, Constance Elliott, Carolyn Spicer, Mary Ellen Ball and Barbara Murget.

President Saves Joshua Trees

TWENTY-NINE PALMS, Calif. (AP)—The weird Joshua trees of the southwestern desert have come into their own. A presidential proclamation has created a national monument near here, embracing 825,340 acres of typical desert flora and geological formations. It is known as the Joshua tree national monument.

Cancels Contract

Anna May Wong, American-born Chinese actress, was forced to cancel a London stage contract because she was stranded at Honolulu by the marine strike on her return from her first visit to the land of her ancestors. But the exotic star could still smile when she was photographed on her arrival at San Francisco on the first craft bearing home island visitors caught by the walkout. (Associated Press photo.)
